ALL ENGLAND IN GLOOM OVER DEATH OF MONARCH

King Edward Passed Away at 11:45 Last Night After Acute Illness—Prince of Wales Succeeds to Crown Without Ceremony—Loved and Admired by United Kingdom.

London, May 6.—King Edward VII died at 11:45 o'clock tonight. The Prince of Wales is King, assuming the title of King George V., and will take the oath before the Privy Council at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Coming so suddenly the death of the King cannot but bring the greatest sorrow to the nation, in whose hearts Edward, first as Prince of Walse and afterwards as sovereign, held first place. His short reign of nine years has been a history of stirring times. It opened with the conclusion of peace after a long and trying campaign in South Africa, and concluded at the crucial moment of one of the most momentous political struggles of modern times, between the Peers and Commons. In a day the political outlook of Great Britain has been revolutionized.

Throughout the Empire the word was flashed and today flags are floating at half mast the world over. Besides the social gloom which the King's death casts over England, several important and long planned official events must be abandoned. Tae Prince and Princess of Wales were to go South Africa with the squadron and the squadron and the Prince was to open the first parliament of tae new confederation, but his accession to the throne will now prevent this.

The death of his majesty will also mean the abandonment of the principal functions of ex-President Roosevelt's tour.

The Lord Mayor replied to Prince George's telegram as follows:

"I tender your Royal Highness an expression of most true sympathy and condolence from the citizens of London. May God in His loving mercy comfort you and the Princess. The prayers of the nation are with you and they keenly share your sorrows."

The Lord Mayor sent a message to Queen Alexandra "The city of ondon hears with profound emotion that God has called to himself your august husband, our gracious and beloved King and desires to lay at your feet its loyal devotion and deep sympathy, praying that his loving hand may bless and comfort you and those so dear to you in this your hour of need and sorrow."

London, May 6.—King Edward VII, who returned to England from a vacation ten days ago in the best of health, died at 11:45 o'clock tonight in the presence of his family after an illness of less than a week, which was serious hardly more than three days.

The Prince of Wales succeeded to the crown immediately, according to the laws of the Kingdom, without official ceremony. His first official act was to dispatch to the Lord Mayor the announcement of his father's death, in pursuance of custom. His telegram read:

"I am deeply grieved to inform you that my beloved father, the King, passed away peacefully at 11:45 tonight.

(Signed) "GEORGE."

The physicians soon afterwards issued their official bulletin, which was as follows:

"May 6th, 11:50 P. M. His Majesty the King, breathed his last at 11:45 tonight, in the presence of Her Majesty, Queen Alexandra, the Prince and Princess of Wales, Princess Royal, the Duchess of Fife, Princess Victoria and Princess Louise, the Duchess of Argyll.

(Signed) "LAKING,
"REID,
"POWELL,
"DAWSON."

Pneumonia, following bronchitis, is believed to have been the cause of death, but the doctors thus far have refused to make a statemnt. Some of the King's friends are convinced that worry over the critical political situation which confronted him, with sleepless nights, aggravated, if it did not cause the fatal illness.

Besides the nearest relatives in England, the Duke of Fife and the Archbishop of Canterbury were in the death chamber. The King's brother, the Duke of Connaught, with his family is at Suez, hastening home from Africa. The King's daughter, Queen Maud, of Norway, will start for England tomorrow.

The intelligence that the end of King Edward's reign had come was not a surprise at the last. The people had been expecting to hear it at any hour since the evening bulletin was posted at Buckingham Palace and flashed throughout the Kingdom. The capitol received it without excitement, but sadly, for the King with his own people was unquestionably one of the most popular rulers in the world. They regarded him as one of the strongest forces making for the stability of the peace of the Empire.

The fashionable restaurants were just emptying and a few groups of late theatre-goers were making their way homeward through the rain, while a small crowd still hung about the palace when the streets were filled suddenly with newsboys shrilly crying "Death of the King."

The papers were quickly seized and the people discussed the momentous event quietly and soon dispersed. The streets were deserted by 1 o'clock.

Within a few minutes after the death of the King, the Home Office telegraphed the intelligence to the heads of other governments and the British diplomats and Colonial offices throughout the world.

All who knew the King anticipated that his death would be sudden, and it would not have occasioned great surprise if it had occurred without warning at some social function, as a result of heart trouble. Almost to the end he refused to take to his bed, and was sitting up yesterday in a large chair, so the palace stories go, corroborating the description of him as an unruly patient, which Dr. Ott gave to a Vienna interviewer last evening.

One of the last utterances attributed to King Edward was: "Well, it is all over, but I think I have done my duty." He seemed then to have reached a full realization that his end was fast approaching. The Queen and others of the Royal Family and four doctors has been constantly in the sick room throughout the day. Several hours before his death the King was in a comatose condition, but he rallied slightly between 9 and 10 o'clock and appeared to recognize his family. Then he lapsed into unconsciousness, which ended in his passing.

When Dr. St. Clair Thomson, the great throat specialist, was called in yesterday morning, it was expected that an operation on the throat would be necessary, but after consultation it was decided that the lungs were the seat of the most serious symptoms. Experts were held in readiness to administer an anaesthetic, but there was fear that the weakness of the King's heart might result in a fatal issue, and an operation was set aside as a last resort.

The body lies in the King's chamber in the northwest wing of Buckingham Palace, which is brilliantly lighted, while the rest of the great gloomy building, with the exception of Lord Knolly's office is entirely darkened. It was nearly half an hour after the King breathed his last, when Lord Knolly walked into the office and said to the waiting reporters: "Gentlemen, His Majesty is dead."

The people outside the palace only learned the news when boys appeared with papers. In the meantime, the Prince and Princess of Wales had taken leave of the other members of the Royal Family at the main entrance, soon after midnight. They drove direct to Marlborough house, Princess Victoria, who is her mother's constant companion, remained with the Queen. The others of the family followed the Prince and Princess of Wales.

A summons to the privy councellor's has been issued by Sir Almeric Fitzroy, clerk of the council, convening the council in the throne room of St. James' Palace at 2 o'clock this afternoon when the councillors will "with one voice and the consent of tongue and heart publish and proclaim that the high and mighty Prince George is now, by the death of our late sovereign of happy memory, become our only lawful and rightful leige lord, George V., by the grace of God, King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith and Emperor of India, to whom we do acknowledge all faith and constant obedience, with all hearty and humble affection beseeching God by whom kings and queens do reign, to bless the Royal Prince, George, V., with long and happy years to reign over us."

The new King, after this proclamation, will address the council and promise to reign as constitutional sovereign. At the conclusion of the meeing King George will issue his first proclamation, requiring all officials to proceed with their duties.

The aldermen of the city of London will attend the council and swear allegiance. A proclamation has already been issued by the home office, requiring theatres to close today.

The court will go into mourning for six months, and the Lord Mayor has ordered that the great bell of St. Paul's shall be tolled throughout the day.

So sudden was the King's death that most of the government officials were absent. Premier Asquith, who is in Spain, cannot reach London before Monday. It is the duty of the members of both houses of Parliament to meet as soon as they can assemble to take the oath of allegiance and receive the message of the King. Speaker Lowther, of the House of Commons, however, is in constant attendance.

Personality of King Edward.

When Edward VII. breathed his last there came to a close the life of a unique personality. He was loved almost universally, first of all as a man whose natural attributes made him dear to the hearts of his subjects and next as a monarch whose ability to fulfill the role which he was called on to assume was demonstrated conspicuously.

ENTOMBED MINERS ALL DEAD

Hope of Finding Men Alive at Palos, Ala., Practically Abandoned—Estimate Victims Between 120 and 135.

Palos, Ala., May 6.—Fourteen hundred feet and more below the earth's surface lay tonight all but 17 of the more than 100 miners whose lives were snuffed out yesterday in the explosion in No. 3 mine of the Palos Coal & Coke Company on the outskirts of this little town. Hope of finding of any of the entombed men alive was practically abandoned this afternoon, although there are about the entrance to the mine tonight mothers, wives and other relatives who still cling to an almost hopeless hope that their loved ones will be brought out with a spark of life yet remaining.

Identification of the bodies brought to the surface was possible by means of the little brass checks which they carried.

Foul air in the mine today caused by decomposing bodies of mules and the miners themselves as well as the continued presence of after-damp, interfered with the work of rescue.

Already the work of succoring the families deprived of their money is in progress. Besides the relief extended by the officials of the mine the Red Cross is supplying the necessaries of life to the families of the victims, many of whom were left almost penniless.

All day crowds of 3,000 thronged the mine hole and at times it was with difficulty that the 100 officers kept them from hampering the work of rescue.

What is considered a conservative estimate tonight places the number of men entombed at between 120 and 135. That all are dead is not doubted. Ed Flynn, mine inspector of the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company, is in charge of the rescue work tonight. He expressed the belief that the bodies of every one of the entombed men will be brought to the surface by Saturday night.

Diplomas will be issued to those students who qualify as efficient managers.

The course will cover not only the kitchen, wine cellar, and apartment economy, but also foreign languages, the elements of architecture, electricity and sanitary engineering.

CAROLINA LUTHERAN SYNOD

Mt. Pleasant Institute to be Removed—Animated Discussion Lasting All Day—Able Address at Night Session—Other Notes.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Albemarle, N. C., May 6.—Nearly the entire day was spent by the North Carolina Synod on the question of removing Mount Pleasant Collegiate Institute. A committee which had been appointed to consider that matter and report this afternoon, adopted a resolution recommending that the Synod appoint to negotiate with the Tennessee Synod as to consolidation of the Mount Pleasant Institute with Lenoir College at Hickory.

This resolution provided that if after 60 days the committee should fail to come to satisfactory terms with the Tennessee Synod in regard to the consolidation of the two institutions, they were to give all cities and towns within the jurisdiction of the North Carolina Synod a chance to make offers and that the place making the best bid, all other things being equal, would get the new college.

It provided, however, for the running of another term at Mount Pleasant but the adoption meant a removal from Mount Pleasant.

When the report was read by Rev W. A. Snyder, quite an interesting discussion immediately took place. Mr. J. W. Cook, of Concord, made a touching plea for Mount Pleasant. "I love old North Carolina College," he said, "she is as a mother to me; she has made it possible for me to grow three blades of grass where only I could grow but one for her." He objected to consolidation with Lenoir College stating that the Tennessee Synod had not a fee simple titie to the college property.

He said this was not mere hearsay, but that he had investigated the matter and positively knew that their title was invalid. He said Mount Pleasant was as good a site as was necessary, citing the State university and other institutions in the woods as he said, as examples proving that it was not necessary for an educational institution to be in a large place. He closed by stating that if the college "must be moved, in the name of God and in the name of justice, do not throw off on Mount Pleasant." His fight was a gallant one. The majority was against him, however, and the resolution was adopted and North Carolina College will shortly be a matter of history.

Rev. W. A. Lutz, of the Tennessee Synod, differed with Mr. Cook as to the title of the Lenior college property, causing quite a heated discussion.

The programme for the evening consisted of very strong addresses by Rev. R. L. Patterson, of Charlotte, and Rev. A. G. Voight, D. D., of Charleston, on education of the ministry. Under this subject Rev. Mr. Patterson spoke on the imperative demand, Rev. Dr. Voight spoke on the inadequate demand. Both addresses were strong and impressive.

HOUSE AND RAILROAD BILL.

Argued to Vote on Measure Tuesday—Postoffice Bill.

Washington, May 6.—The House practically concluded with the consideration of the administration railorad bill for the adoption of amendments before adjournment today and agreed that a final vote would be taken next Tuesday. The action authorizing mergers between railroads was struck out by a vote of 131 to 128. Efforts of Democrats to strike out the sections relating to the capitalization of railrads were ineffectual.

The postoffice appropriation bill, carrying about $240,000,000 was passed by the Senate without amendment. As the result of this action no conference will be required upon this bill.

A large number of bills were passed including one granting pensions of $12 a month to nurses who served in the Civil War.

The Senate adjourned until Monday, but the House will be in session tomorrow.

FEARFUL DEATH TOLL OF 'QUAKE

Whole City of Cartago, Costa Rico, Completely Laid Waste.

MORE THAN 500 WERE KILLED

Clouds of Dust Turned City Into Darkness and Panic Ensued—Hundreds of Survivors Flee From City—Details.

San Jose, Costa Rica, May 6.—The earthquake which laid waste the town of Cartago occurred at 6:50 o'clock on Wednesday night. It came without warning and continued about 18 seconds. In that brief space of time the buildings, of the place collapsed, burying hundreds of persons. The dead were first estimated at 500 but it is believed tonight that the fatalities were much greater. Many hundreds more were injured. Up to a late hour today 400 bodies had been recovered.

Following the shock the twilight was turned to the darkness of midnight by clouds of dust that rose from the ruins. Panic ensued and the cries of the injured and fleeing survivors filled air. Cooler heads hurried to tae telegraph office to summon help from this city, only to find the operators dead, the wires down and the railroad traffic badly impeded. As soon as the news reached San Jose, President Gonzales Vicquez, accompanied by President-elect Ricaud Jiminez and many doctors and nurses and a supply of medicines, started on a special train for the scene of the disaster to lend first aid to the survivors. Upon the President's arrival at Cartago martial law was proclaimed in order to facilitate the maintenance of order. Provisions and clothing were also dispatched from here

Throughout the day special trains arrived here bringing the wounded who have filled the hospitals and many private houses which had been surrendered for the purpose.

Hundreds of survivors are camped outside the ruined city awaiting transportation to other points. They are being fed at the public expense. Several carloads of provisions have been dispatched from here and A. LaJuela.

The beautiful Peace Palace erected at a cost of $100,000 through the generosity of Andrew Carnegie was converted into a pile of debris. Other public buildings met the same fate. Many students at the college of the Silician fathers were killed. Only three of them escaped uninjured.

The work of rescue was greatly impeded by falling walls which blocked the narrow streets.

The tremors continue tonight and the terror of th people increase as time passes. The popular fear of further shocks of a severe character has extended to the neighboring towns.

Only the early hour of the evening at which the disaster occurred prevented a much greater loss of human life.

At the time many people were in the open. So far no deaths have been reported among the American colony.

The disaster was not proceeded by any activity of the volcano Poaz or of other volcanic vents. The snock was felt throughout Costa Rica and in many parts of Nicaragua. Great fissures opened at many places in the volcanic zone.

The ministers here of Panama, Mexico and other Central American countries have asked their governmnets to contribute to the aid of their sister republic. Several prominent Spanish and Americans are among the dead. These include the wife of Dr. Becanegra, the Guatemalan magistrate to the Central American arbitration court, and Senor Trejos.

President Taft and Secretary Knox this afternoon wired their condolences to the President. Owing to the interruption of the telegraphic service, the news of the disaster was slow in reaching outside points.

Two Towns Destroyed.

Boston, Mass., May 6.—That the towns of Cartago and Paraiso, adjoining each other in the center of Costa Rica were both totally destroyed in the earthquake of Wednesday night and that several hundred persons were killed are facts contained in the latest dispatch received tonight at the headquarters of the United Fruit Company. This dispatch dates San Jose, May 6th and forwarded by wireless to Colon said:

"Everything quiet today. Railroad traffic resumed. Cartago and Paraiso totally destroyed. Casualties will reach several hundred."

Carnegie to Rebuild Palace.

New York, May 6.—Andrew Carnegie will reconstruct the Peace Palace destroyed at Cartago by the earthquake according to a message received from him in New York tonight. Mr. Carnegie is on board the steamship Adriatic en route to England but he sent the following message by wireless to the New York Times tonight: "I deeply regret misfortune but this palace shall be reconstructed and I trust fulfill its holy mission."

With the approach of the biennial session of the Louisiana Legislature, questions of proposed legislation have been brought to the stage of active discussion in the State. The Federal income tax will be one of the subjects brought to the attention of the General Assembly soon after it is convened next Monday, but the matter of the measure's passage is problematical.

THE ILLINOIS BRIBERY CASES

Minority Leader of House Indicted Yesterday and Others Are Involved Likely Future of the Investigation.

Chicago, May 6.—Lee O'Nel Borwne, of Ottawa, Ill., Democratic minority leader of the Illinois House of Representatives, was indicted today on a charge of bribery and Representative Robert E. Wilson, of Chicago ,and Representative Michael S. Link, of Mitchell, Ill., were indicted on charges of perjury by the special grand jury which for a week has been investigating the election on May 16th, 1909, of William Lorimer, of Chicago, to the United States Senate and other alleged doings of the Illinois Legislature. The evidence on which the indictments were returned in Judge Kersteer's court was supplied by Representative Charles A. White, of O'Fallen, Ill., and Representative H. J. C. Beckmeyer, of Carlyle. Wilson and Link, as well as White and Beckmeyer are Democratic members of the Legislature.

Specifically, the bribery charge against Browne is based on the charge that he gave Representative White $850 at a hotel in Chicago late in May, 1909, as alleged compensation for White's vote for Lorimer for Senator.

The perjury charge against Link is based on his testimony given before the present grand jury yesterday. In this testimony Link is alleged to have sworn that he was not in St. Louis, Mo., on July 15th, 1909, and that he did not there meet Representative Robert E. Wilson, of Chicago. The grand jury declares that it finds on investigation that Link was in St. Louis on that date and did meet Wilson. The jury further declares that Link will further perjure himself after realization of the value of his statements in the investigation.

The perjury charge against Wilson is based on his testimony given before the grand jury. The indictment alleges that Wilson testified that he did not hand sums of money to Representative White and Representative Beckmeyer in the Southern Hotel, St. Louis, on July 15th, 1909. The grand jury states in its bill against Wilson that it finds that Wilson did hand money to both White and Beckmeyer at St. Louis on that date.

Immediately upon the return of the three indictments Judge Kersten fixed Browne's and Wilson's bail at $15,000 and that of Link at $5,000.

Another indictment not bearing on the Lorimer investigation but connected with another case of alleged legislative bribery was returned by the grand jury against William J. Henley, formerly president of the Chicago and Western Indian railroad.

This indictment charges Henley with embezzlement of the railroad's funds. It is a direct outcome of charges made by John C. Fetzer, who declared that a "slush fund" had been used in the legislature to procure the passage of a bill validating a $50,000,000 bond issue made by the Chicago and Western Indiana Railroad. Fetzer said that a "slush fund" of $212,000 was distributed among legislators by agents of the railroad.

The State's attorney announced tonight that there is another week's work ahead of the grand jury. Many other witnesses nearly all of them State representatives will be called before the jury.

Representative Link was allowed to spend the night in a down town hotel in custody of a detective. Robert E. Wilson was not arrested tonight.

The special charge in the Henley indictment is that he embezzled $28,000 on May 5th, 1907, $23,000 of it in the form of checks for $20,000 and $3,000 and $5,000 in currency.

FREEDMAN'S SAVINGS.

Bill to Satisfy Remaining Depositors of Bank Reported Favorably.

Washington, May 5.—The bill to pay depositors of the Freedman's Bank carrying an appropriation of $1,291,000 was reported in the House today.

The Freedman's Bank was organized in 1865 as a philanthropic institution. Many millions in deposits were received from former slaves. The panic of 1873 drove the institution to the wall. Only 62 per cent. of the deposits were paid, and bills have been pending for years to reimburse the METHODIST HOSTS AT ASHEVILLE, N. C.

Unprecedented Number of Petitions and Memorials Presented.

MAY LAST OVER SIX WEEKS

Committees Overwhelmed With Business—Position of Bishops on Many Important Questions Presented at Session.

Asheville, N. C., May 6.—With an almost unprecedented number of petitions and memorials filed and with the expiring of the time for asking new ones still afar off, those who have attended many general Methodist conferences predict that the one which opened Wednesday will last for a month or six weeks. The committees are already almost snowed under with work and at least two believe that they cannot make reports on all matters referred to them inside of four weeks.

And in spite of all this work ahead of the committees, it is just as freely predicted that the 16th quadrennial conference will be known in history for what it refused to do, rather than for what it did. That the effort to secure for women the right to be represented in the conference by delegates of their own sex will be a strenuous one, is admitted.

That the older men in the conference are against the innovation is equally apparent. The Episcopal opposition to the idea is strong and open. The Bishops and older men are likewise opposed to any change in the name of the church, although the supporters of the name "American Methodist church" are leaving nothing undone to have that appellation adopted. Those who want the administration of Vanderbilt University at Nashville, Tenn., turned over to the trustees and taken from under the control of the college of bishops do not hope to win all they ask and the strong pronunciation in the Episcopal address that "the University is the church's, and must remain the church's" is regarded as indicative of what the conference will do. The selection of the six or eight new bishops also promises a long and bitterly contested struggle.

Then too, there is the question of the four year limit on pastors, the creation of new conferences and the change in the boundaries of others, the proposition to divide the missionary field in foreign countries with the Northern Methodist church and the revision of the discipline. All these momentous questions will require time to decide, even though the church, as now seems most likely, will make no radical changes.

Morning Session.

Asheville, May 6.—The usual devotional exercises marked the opening of the third day of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The roll call of conference resulted in a flood of memorials and petitions. When Arkansas was reached the call resulted in 20 petitions from women for laymen's rights. Each of these petitions brought forth laughter from the conference. A delegate from Arkansas protested against the "unseemly levity," and the protest brought more laughter.

Bishop Hoss, of Nashville, read the report of the bishops on church federation with the Northern Methodist church. Bishop Hoss told of a conference with the brethren of the North. The main feature of the report was a recommendation that both churches combine and appoint a federal council which shall decide all disputed points and be a court of last resort without appeal. The report was received with applause and referred to the committee on church relations.

A resolution setting aside Sunday as a day of prayer for divine guidance in the selection of bishops was introduced. From 4 to 5 P. M. Sunday was decided upon as a special hour of prayer. A delegate wanted to amend the resolution to read that there be no electioneering that day but the chairman, Bishop, Key, ignored the amendment and the resolution was adopted by a standing vote.

Dr. W. L. Haven, general secretary of the American Bible Society, who was to have addressed the Conference next week, was introduced today because he planned to sail for Spain Monday to direct a campaign of the society there. He recently outlined the society's work and urged continued support for it. He announced that last Monday Mrs. Russell Sage sent the society her check for $500,000, the society having arranged the same amount as stipulated.

RALEIGH REDUCES TAX.

Decreased Amount to $150 Upon Petion of Druggists.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 6.—Since none of the drug stores would pay the $500 license tax imposed by the Aldermen two weeks ago for filling alcoholic whiskey prescriptions and they were threatening to contend for their rights in the courts to fill such prescriptions without license, the Aldermen last night restored the old $125 tax. The near-beer tax remains at $500.

FIRST EXHIBITION GAME

The Wilmington League Baseball Team Will Play Coast Liners at League Park This Afternoon —Players Arrived.

The first exhibition game of baseball of the season will be played at League Park this afternoon between the Wilmington team in the East Carolina Association and a team from the general offices of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company. It is expected that hundreds of fans will journey to the park this afternoon to see what kind of ball the new league players can put up. The admission will be 25 cents to any part of the grounds and the Tidewater Power Company will provide ample car service to take care of the crowds. The turn-stile will be in operation this afternoon for the first time.

The game will be called at 4 o'clock and will be umpired by Mr. Davis, of this city, one of the official umpires of the league. He will umpire all the exhibtion games that will be played here between this date and the opening of the league season May 23rd. The line-up for the Cost line team will be as follows: Emerson, shortstop; White, leftfield; Brinkley, 2nd base; Hines, 3rd base; McClelland, rightfield; Terry 1st base; Johnson, centrefield; King, catcher and Green pitcher. Player manager Kite has not decided who will work on the league team this afternoon, but probably he will give most all the players a chance to display their qualifications as ball players.

The following 18 players have arrived: Catchers Hudson and Harris; Pitchers Kelly, Ebbinger, Hawkins and Foltz; Infielders Brothers, Taylor, Leach, Carroll, Roberts, Pardon and Alberts; Outfielders Hearne, Lucas, Riley and Holler. Infielder Hyames is expected today. Guerant will arrive Monday and Rube Howard expects to get here the latter part of next week. In addition to the above named Mr. J. Ed. Smith, owner of the club, stated last night that he expected to sign another pitcher and outfielder.

The team is practicing now both morning and afternoon and the players are showing up well for their respective positions. The battery work is especially promising. The infield promises to be one of the fastest this year in the history of the club, while the outfielders are all fast and show up well with the stick. There was a game yesterday afternoon between the players and it was a good exhibition of the sport. Many fans go out to the grounds daily and are well pleased with the practice work.

HARROUN WINS RACE.

Takes Honors in His Freak Machine in Atlanta—Flights.

Atlanta, Ga., May 6.—Ray Harroun, driving his freak Marmon Yellow Jacket, carried off the honors at the tAlanta speedway this afternoon when he drove 12 miles in the time of 8:59.16. As the Marmon flashed ahead of the American driven by Lyttle the crowds came to their feet with yells of applause.

Charles K. Hamilton made two ascensions in his Curtiss biplane the second time remaining in the air 23 minutes. In attempting a third flight his machine struck an obstruction splitting a propeller and tearing the surface of one of the planes. The damage was not serious and Hamilton announced he would be ready for another flight tomorrow, the final day of the meeting.

PELLAGRA CONSIDERED

Disease Recognized Over Country, According to This Expert.

Washington, May 6.—"Pellagra is such a serious disease and a cure has been so hopeless that patience should be shown with all theories for life." This statement was made here by Dr. Howard Fox, of New York, to a group of skin specialists of the Congress of Physicians and Surgeons, who were discussing the subject, and was taken as a recognition of the unsuccessful fight against pellagra. They were not alone in dealing with this disease for during the afternoon the Medico-Psychological Association listened to several papers on pellagra.

Drs. W. T. Corlett and O. T. Schultz presented to the dermatologists a paper on pellagra in Ohio. The position was taken that a few cases had occurred in Ohio, but that following the awakening to the existence of pellagra in this country, there had been many cases diagnosed as pellagra which were not such. Investigation of two supposed epidemics in State hospitals in Ohio they said, revealed in reality no pellagra.

Dr. J. W. Babcock, of Columbia, president of the National Pellagra Congress, said that pellagra had been recognized in about twenty-six or twenty-seven States.

ONLY ONE "BEST"

Wilmington People Give Credit Where Credit is Due.

People of Wilmington who suffer with sick kidneys and bad backs, want a kidney remedy that can be depended upon. The best is Doan's Kidney Pills, a medicine for the kidneys only, made from pure roots and herbs, and the only one that is backed by cures in Wilmington. Here's Wilmington testimony:

Miss Maggie Rivenbark, 105 Dock St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I found great benefit through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at R. R. Bellamy's Drug Store. I suffered from constant, dull pains in my back and some days I could hardly get about. My kidneys were weak and I was caused much annoyance. I tried several remedies, but nothing gave me relief until Doan's Kidney Pills were used. They proved to be just what I required and in a short time cured me so completely that my trouble has never returned."

THE RECORDER'S AUTHORITY TO ISSUE WARRANTS ON INFORMATION ON OATH.

Revisal 3721. Gambling; Justices and other officers to summon witnesses. "All justices of the peace, intendants and magistrates of police, mayors of towns, and judges of the supreme or superior court, who shall have good reason to believe that any person within their jurisdiction has knowledge of the existence and establishment of any faro-bank or faro-table, or gaming tables, prohibited by this chapter, or places where intoxicating liquors are sold contrary to law, in any town or county within their several jurisdictions, and such person not being minded to make voluntary information thereof on oath, then it shall be lawful for such justice of the peace, intendant and magistrate of police, mayor of town, or judge of supreme or superior court, to issue to the sheriff or the county, or any constable of the town or township in which said faro bank faro-table, or gaming table or tables, or place where intoxicating liquors are sold contrary to law, are supposed to be, a subpoena, capias ad testificandum, or summons in writing, commanding such person to appear immediately before said justice of the peace, intendant or magistrate of police mayor or judge, and give evidence on oath as to what he may know touching the existence, establishment and whereabouts of said gaming table or tables, faro-bank or faro tables, or places where intoxicating liquors are sold contrary to law, and the names and personal description of the keepers thereof; and such evidence when obtained shall be considered and held in law as an information on oath, and said justice, intendant, magistrate, mayor or judge, may thereupon proceed to seize and arrest said keepers and destroy said tables, or issue process therefor, in like manner as they do by authority of the preceding section."

"The Recorder's Court was established by the laws of 1909. Therefore, the mayor of this municipality had all the powers of a Justice of the Peace, and the right to exercise jurisdiction in all cases of violation of the ordinances of the City of Wilmington, in accordance with the law, or any crimes against the laws of the State. That act, passed as it was, was passed for the express purpose of taking away from the Mayor of this town any criminal jurisdiction whatsoever, and to leave him simply the head or executive officer of the City. That law being passed in 1909, being Chapter 398, says of the Recorder's court: 'It shall have final, exclusive original jurisdiction of all criminal offences; of all violations of city ordinances committed within the limits of the City of Wilmington; shall have final concurrent jurisdiction of all criminal offences committed in New Hanover County which shall now or may hereafter be in the jurisdiction of justices of the peace, and, in addition thereto, shall have final original original jurisdiction of criminal offences, gambling, keeping gambling houses, selling or giving away spirituous liquors,' and so on, "—(Extract from speech of Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy before the Mayor).

1. If all the right to investigate criminal matters is left to the Recorder, why is not the law enforced?

2. If twenty-five and fifty barrel consignments of whiskey are continually being delivered in Wilmington to one party by the S. A. L. Railway, why does the Recorder not obtain information and issue warrants under the statute under which the Mayor is proceeding?

The voters of New Hanover County must answer these questions by their ballots.

SAD DEATH AT A. & M.

Cadet Haynes Passes Away—Team's Victorious Return—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 5.—One of the saddest deaths in the history of the college was that of Ernest Albert Haynes, of Raleigh, a member of the Civil Engineering division of the Senior class, which occurred yesterday morning at Rex Hospital, after a long illness, extending back as far as the first part of January. "Chick" as he was familiarly called by his friends, was highly esteemed by all who knew him. He was buried this afternoon in Oakwood cemetery, members of the Senior class acting as pall-bearers. The Cadet battalion was marched to Raleigh and escorted the body from the home to the cemetery.

Rev. Mr. Wilcox, pastor of one of the Methodist churches in Raleigh, addressed a meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday night, held in Pullen Hall.

Never in the history of the college has any athletic team been accorded the welcome home that the victorious baseball team received upon its return from the recent Northern trip, having defeated V. P. I., Georgetown and U. S. S. Franklin and tied the Navy in a 15-inning game 1 to 1. Monday night the entire student body assembled on the campus and after celebrating there marched down to St. Mary's, Peace and Meredith, bearing torchlights, banners with the scores of the recent games upon them, and singing college songs. At all of the girls' colleges the students were received with great applause and singing. The team led the procession in automobiles, followed by the college band in wagons.

Work on the new Engineering building started the first part of the week and is progressing rapidly.

The student battalion next Tuesday, May 10th, Memorial Day, will act as honorary escort to Governor Kitchin, who is to deliver the address on that occasion.

BLADEN COUNTY NEWS.

Death in Bethel Township—New Railroad.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Elizabethtown, N. C., May 6.—Mrs. D. B. Pilmon, a resident of Bethel township, died today at 1 o'clock. Her death was caused suddenly by an attack of paralysis. She will be buried tomorrow at 4 o'clock at her old home four miles south of Dublin. Mrs. Pitman was 60 years of age and leaves four children who are all married.

The crops of this county were not badly hurt by the cold spell of last week. It is thought that no fruit was killed and the small acreage of cotton that was up then is now looking as though no cold weather had touched it.

Mr. A. W. McLean, of Lumberton, the prime mover of the new railroad that is being built from St. Paul's, N. C., to Elizabethtown, is making daily trips through Bladen looking after the interests of his road. He has been pushing the construction of this road with all the energy he possibly can and it is expected that in a few months this section of Bladen county will be in direct connection with the Northern markets. This will be made possible by making connection with the Atlantic Coast Line at Hope Mills.

CHARGE OF LARCENY.

Interesting Case Before Recorder in Union—Stole $60.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Monroe, May 6.—All of yesterday was consumed by the Recorder in hearing a charge of larceny which had been brought against John Pierce and his wife, L. D. Pierce, two white people of this county. In short, the evidence was that J. L. Autry had $60 in a bureau drawer, and Mrs. Pierce was at Autry's house and had opportunity to get the money, unseen. At aobut the same time that Autry's money disappeared, John Pierce began spending money freely at the country stores of the neighborhood. He purchased a cow, in addition to the extarvagances indulged in at the stores. The defendants' evidence is that they had about $40 of their own money, and that they never even knew that Autry had money in his bureau drawer. The Recorder continued the case until Saturday, taking Pierce's recognizance for $100. On Saturday Recorder Stevens will determine whether or not there is sufficient cause to bind the defendants over to the next term of the Superior Court.

BOILER SHOP FOR SPENCER.

Southern Railway Offers Bids for the Erection of the Building.

(Special to Charlotte Chronicle.)

Spencer, May 4.—Mr. M. M. Phipps, of the D. J. Phipps Company, contractors, of Newport News, Va., was in Spencer today making estimates for the construction of a huge new boiler shop for the Southern Railway Company of this place. It is learned that bids for the erection of the building will be opened in Washington on May 20th. The building will be 100x205 feet, two-stories high, constructed of the best brick and steel material on concrete foundation and will be equipped with the best modern machinery and appliances known to railroad shops.

It is stated here on good authority that the new boiler shop is only one of five important buildings to be erected this year at Spencer by the Southern Railway Company, among others being an office building, store house and an oil house, all constructed of brick.

BROWN LANDS PLACE.

Appointed to Succeed Mr. Aycock as Corporation Commissioner.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 6.—Henry Clay Brown received this afternoon a commission from Gov. Kitchin to succeed the late B. F. Aycock as corporation commissioner. Mr. Brown, who has been secretary to the Corporation Commission 18 years, was summoned to the Governor's office about noon and soon thereafter announcement was made that he had been named for the commissionership for which there were just 20 applicants. This appointment will vacate the secretaryship of the Commission, the place to be filled by the Commission.

Soon after he had received his commission from the Governor Mr. Brown said: "I am glad that I shall have the opportunity to serve the people of the State as Corporation Commissioner. In announcing my candidacy recently I said I pledged myself, if nominated and elected Commissioner, to enforce and exccute existing laws and all such laws as may hereafter be passed, subscribing and defining the duties of Corporation Commissioner faithfully and impartially and to the best of my ability, with a view to the progress of our prosperity and the welfare of the people. I renew that pledge today. I have been overwhelmed with kind assurances of support received from all classes of people throughout the entire State since I made my announcement, and while at first I did not apply for the position made vacant by the lamentable death of Mr. Aycock, I learned that so many citizens had written to the Governor without my knowledge, urging him to tender me the appointment and so many had written to me to the same effect that I saw it was my duty to apply for the position, which I did yesterday."

Mr. Brown will take the oath of office as Commissioner within the next day or two and probably early next week there will be an election of a new secretary to the Commission to succeed Mr. Brown. A very great deal of work is to be done by the Commission within a few months, including the corporation and general tax assessments for the entire State.

CAROLINIANS SUBPOENAED.

Wanted to Appear in New York in Cotton Inquiry.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 6.—It became known here today that at least two prominent cotton men in this, the Eastern, and two in the Western district have just been subpoenaed to go to New York to appear before the grand jury in the investigation the government is, through Attorney General Wickersham, conducting as to the latest bull movement in the cotton market, the case being the Government vs. J. C. Patton and others. The subpoenas have just passed into the hands of the United States marshal for service. These subpoenas are understood to be issued for prominent cotton men in all Southern States with a view to proving the existence of a pool in restraint of trade.

HOW TO CURE RHEUMATISM.

It Is an Internal Disease and Requires an Internal Remedy.

The cause of rheumatism and kindred diseases is an excess of uric acid in the blood. To cure this terrible disease this acid must be expelled and the system so regulated that no more acid will be formed in excessive quantities. Rheumatism is an internal disease and requires an internal remedy. Rubbing with oils and liniments will not cure, affords only temporary relief at best, and allows the malady to get a firmer hold on you. Liniments may ease the pain, but they will no more cure rheumatism than paint will change the fibre of rotten wood.

Science has at last discovered a perfect and complete cure, which is called "Rheumacide." Tested in hundreds of cases, it has effected the most marvelous cures; we believe it will cure you. Rheumacide "gets at the joints from the inside," sweeps the poisons out of the system, tones up the system, regulates the liver and kidneys and makes you feel well all over. Rheumacide "strikes the root of the disease and removes its cause." This splendid remedy is sold by druggists and dealers generally at 50c and $1 a bottle. In Tablet form at 25c and 50c a package. Get a bottle today. Booklet free if you write to Bobbitt Chemical Co, Baltimore, Md.

LUTHERAN SYNOD MEETS.

Interesting and Well Attended Meeting at Albemarle.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Albemarle, N. C., May 4.—The North Carolina Lutheran Synod convened in the First Lutheran church in this city Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Synodical serman was preached by President V. Y. Boozer, of Lexington, N. C. He spoke of the great need of forward movement in the mission field. After the sermon the Synodical communion was administered.

The old officers were elected as follows: Rev. V. Y. Boozer, president; Rev. J. E. Shenk, vice president; Rev. H. A. McCullough, secretary. The Synod then adjourned to meet at 9 A. M. Thursday morning.

The evening was devoted to the Laymen's Missionary Movement, five most excellent addresses having been made on this subject. The first speaker was Dr. Geo. B. Cramer, president of the Laymen's Missionary Movement in the Lutheran Church, South, of Newberry, S. C., who was in his usual good mood and delivered a most forceful address. The second speaker was Mr. A. D. Wessel, from Wilmington, who spoke with much feeling on the "Laymen in the Church", and their part in the extension of Christ's Kingdom. The third speaker was Rev. E. C. Cronk, field secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement of the Lutheran Church, South, who very ably outlined the work. The fourth speaker, Prof. McAllister, from Mt. Pleasant, N. C., very ably illustrated how the King's business was the laymen's business. Judge Miller, from Salisbury, N. C., fifth and last speaker in an eloquent, short and to the point address, explained how the foreign mission spirit in a congregation would make them wide-awake on home missions and the effect on the church in general.

Dr. Cramer's address was on the responsibility placed on the Lutheran church as her part in evangelizing the world and will she meet it.

A large delegation is present and much interest is being taken in the sessions.

NO BAD FEELINGS SINCE

Lady Tells in a Few Well Chosen Words, the Story of Her Serious Illness Finally Conquered.

Grand Haven, Mich.—"I was very sick, with dragging-down feelings, until I was ready to give up all hope," says Mrs. L. J. Ryder, of this city. "I tried all the doctors here, but could find no relief, so I used your wonderful medicine, Cardui, and have had no return of pain, or bad feelings since."

Cardui has relieved or cured so many ladies in a similar manner to this during the past fifty years, that a letter like Mrs. Ryder's is no novelty; such letters reach us in every mail.

From you, however, who are weak or sick, it merits special attention and serious consideration, since it seems to prove, on certain evidence, that a cure is possible in very serious cases of womanly trouble.

If you suffer from such troubles, what imaginable reason could there be for your not at least giving Cardui a fair trial?

Cardui cannot harm you.
It is likely to do you good.
It has helped others, who suffered as you do.
Why should it not help you?
Please try Cardui.
If you need more information, ask your druggist.
He knows the Cardui reputation.

NO INCOME TAX FOR NEW YORK.

For a second time the General Assembly of New York has rejected the concurrent resolution ratifying the income tax amendment to the Federal Constitution. Nothing short of that could have been expected after the strenuous opposition which Governor Hughes voiced against placing any further taxing power in the hands of the Federal Government. Neither was it expected in New York whose plutocrats have huge incomes which they do not want to keep on tap for Uncle Sam.

The New York Tribune (Republican) remarks that this latter refusal of the General Assembly to warm up to the income tax "probably exhausts the effort of this Legislature to commit New York to an enlargement of the Federal taxing power, from which the State has much to loose and nothing to gain." The balance of the country is prepared to believe that New York lays more emphasis on "much to lose" than it does upon "nothing to gain." The income tax would touch the pockets of the rich New Yorkers and for Uncle Sam to do that would cause them to snarl like a panther with a grindstone on its tail. It is quite singular to have a Republican State and Republican newspaper fearing the additional centralization of power that would enable the Federal Government to tax incomes, but when it comes to money the average Republican readily takes up the Democratic alarm against any further concentration of power at Washington.

The Tribune justifies the General Assembly in failing to approve the income tax amendment because this Legislature was elected before Congress passed the amendment, and thus the income tax issue was not before the people so they could have instructed their legislators upon the question. It is easy to understand why New York fights shy of the income tax. New York has less than one-tenth of the population of the United States, but it is estimated that the incomes in that immensely rich State, with the Nation's money centre in New York City, would have to pay from 30 to 35 per cent of the sum to be collected by the Federal Government from incomes. There is the milk in the cocoanut.

The income tax amendment to the Constitution, as passed by Congress, gives the Government power to levy such a tax without its being "apportioned among the States according to population." The Tribune urges that if a tax is so levied New York will have to bear not only the largest share of the tax, but a share more disproportioned to population than any other member of the Union. Such a plea is beggng the question. It is the incomes that should pay the tax without any regard to whether the incomes are in the hands of the few or the many.

It might be desirable to reserve for the States the power to tax incomes, but the Government needs the money. Under the extravagant system of government at Washington it is foreseen that the tariff and internal revenue taxes will sooner or later be insufficient to keep the Treasury supplied with enough money for Congress to squander, as it does in many instances. However, if it becomes necessary for the Government to have more money, it follows that it will have to be raised by additional taxation. It is agreed that excessive incomes should bear the burden of the tax rather than the already overtaxed masses.

OUT FOR THE CASH.

The United States Treasury gives out the statement that on May 2nd the money in circulation in the United States May 2nd, was $3,104,547,273. This would make a per capita circulation of $34.45, a loss for the month of April of 42 cents. The decrease of the per capita is explained by the large export of gold during that month amounting to about $30,000,000. The per capita is figured out on an estimated population of 90,123,000, most of whom are scrambling around for the circulation and per capita that remains in the country. On account of the Aldrich-Payne-Smoot tariff bill, the consumers who rake in any part of that $3,104,547,273 are compelled to disgorge part of it for the predatory individuals who have gobbled more of it than anybody else. Most of us are disposed to raise a disturbance about the unequal distribution of wealth but under the circumstances we had better go to work in order to get our share of it.

A New York court decided that it is not a libel to print a young woman's picture so that she would appear to be a babe. Now it would be a libel to print it so she would look like a grandma.

NEW RAILROADS IN THE SOUTH.

Since January seven new railroads have been chartered in North Carolina with the prospective addition of 315 miles of railroad to the trackage of the State. The Manufacturers' Record of May 5th says the need for more railroads in the South is well expressed in the fact that during the four months which have passed since January 1st there have been organized in the South 76 new railway corporations which propose to construct altogether 5,214 miles of lines. Including Missouri and Oklahoma, which are really Southern and are so classed, the total number of new companies is 90 and their total extent would be 7,330 miles. The Record does not include in the statistics the numerous street railways and electric interurban lines and others that will use gasoline motive power. We note also that it does not include the lines of railway now being constructed under charters granted prior to the first of last January.

North Carolina is at present constructing several lines of railway, including the Winston-Salem Southbound Railway, a joint enterprise of the Atlantic Coast Line and the Norfolk & Western Railway, on which track laying has begun at Winston-Salem towards Wadesboro. It is probable that the 90 mile connecting line from the Norfolk & Western Railway junction at Winston-Salem to the Atlantic Coast Line junction at Wadesboro will be completed by early Fall. This is one of the most important of the railway projects in the South, as it is to be a coal road and sooner or later a trunk line with connections to the Northwestern States.

The Manufacturers' Record in making note of this extensive railroad activity in the South, observes: "This disposition to increase the railroad mileage of the Southern and Southwestern States is a most gratifyingly characteristic of their people, who realize that more lines are imperatively needed to develop natural resources, to encourage agriculture and other industries, and to facilitate and extend commerce."

SENATOR SIMMONS' SPEECH.

The speech of Senator Simmons in which he arraigned the Republican party for its partisan and discriminatory prosecutions against certain cotton spinners, is bringing him many deserved congratulations. The North Carolina Senator happened to know what he was talking about and his comes little short of an infamy. His speech was a masterly presentation and justified denunciation of what strong and admirable speech has attracted the attention of many leading papers North and South, and it has added to the reputation of North Carolina's Senior Senator as a man capable of acute analysis and logical reasoning. The Star is pleased to learn that the Senator's convincing arraignmen of the one-sided investigation proposed by the Republicans is to be published in pamphlet form. His brother Senators and many Representatives have asked for copies for circulation in the approaching Congressional campaign. Most likely it will have a telling effect, as the Senator neatly unmasked the effort to save the mutton of the New York bears who got caught in their scheme to get the South's cotton at less than it is worth.

SOMEBODY IS THE CULPRIT.

If Secretary Ballinger is guilty, as alleged, it shows that President Taft has a corrupt man in his cabinet. If he is not guilty, it is proof that Pinchot, Glavis and the other accusants are a lot of liars and character assassins who have been holding high positions under the government at Washington. Because a man is "high up" it is no sign that he won't lie or commit a disreputable and corrupt act. How such men get their jobs is a mystery, unless the political spoils system is responsible for it. However, it seems that the breed of Judas Iscariots are bound to mix in with every crowd. Judas, so far as we know, left no posterity bearing his name but some men seem to inherit his traits. Nevertheless, the traitors and conspirators are slicker than they were in the days of Julias Caesar.

After more than twelve years, the Senate on Wednesday passed the Sulzer bill providing for raising the wreck of the battleship Maine from the bottom of the harbor at Havana. The battleship was blown up and sunk February 15th, 1898, and 260 American sailors went down with her. Melancholy interest will be taken in raising the ill-fated ship, which, according to expert divers and a court of inquiry, "was destroyed by the explosion of a sub-marine mine." We are now to learn the truth about it and there will be some satisfaction for public sentiment in recovering the moldering bones of the unfortunate men whose lives were snuffed out in the tragedy that so greatly shocked the American Nation.

When some editors can't think of anything else they swat Bryan. That's what a man gets for having the courage of his convictions, although his convictions frequently do not get much for him. The Nebraskan doesn't strike us as the issue just about this time.

At Columbus, Ga., on Thursday Susie R. Harralson wes divorced from Samuel Harralson. Immediately afterward the judge who signed the divorce decree united her in marriage to Joseph DeBrabant who was in waiting, license in hand. Occurrences like that not only shock the moral senses but are liable to bring contempt on the courts. The facts show that a woman, while still a lawful wife of one man, was engaged to be married to another. O, tempora, O, mores!

Says the New York World: "Thousands of American farmers who moved to Canada are now moving back, especially over the Montana border. All things considered, the United States is a pretty good place to stay in." It is; but North Carolina is the best part to stay in. Now let those Western people come to eastern North Carolina where they can live easy and make money on the most generous lands on the continent.

The Lexington Dispatch has just attained the 28th year of its publication. Editor Varner has made of it a staunch and excellent newspaper and it always is a welcome visitor to the Star's exchange table. He and Associate Editor Cochran, a well equipped writer, are making a newspaper that is a credit to Lexington and it well deserves the popularity and support that has come to it in evidently liberal proportions.

Says the Salisbury Post: "There is no disputing the fact that the Republican party is facing the gravest crisis of its existence." The people are getting their eyes open and they realize what a continuance of the Republican party in power means to them and to their Republic. It is hoped no North Carolinian will be so thoughtless as to mix in with the Republican party and share the fate that awaits it.

The census enumeration of Wilmington will be completed in a few days but the figures of the census will be kept secret on special order from Washington. Until the Department of Commerce and Labor is ready to tell what the figures are we will be kept in suspense as to what Wilmington's population is. Guess how much?

The amiable Taft failed to take up the "big stick" to carry out "my policies" and the result is that a number of Republican Senators and Representatives got it into their heads that they could insurge with impunity. Bet the Rough Rider is just itching to have Taft's job in order to show these insurgents a thing or two.

Money spent by candidates in the last campaign in North Carolina seems to be coming home to roost. A campaign of dollars is a bad thing in any State and in North Carolina it should not be tolerated.

Wireless telegraphy is to be used by the Union Pacific Railroad for despatching trains. The usefulness of wireless has just begun.

CURRENT COMMENT.

We are inclined to think that if Solicitor Stack had anything like an opportunity he would give Laurinburg a cleaning up from blind tigerism like unto that at Wadesboro two weeks ago.—Laurinburg Enterprise.

The building of a half million dollar plant in Greensboro by the Southern Power Company is merely another evidence that you can't get away from the fact that Greensboro is a hub around which things will insist on revolving.—Greensboro News.

Anyone who thinks that the farmers of this portion of the State are a poverty stricken lot should have attended the auction sale of some 75 Jersey cows in this city yesterday. At the prices given a cow is in these days about an equal swap for a horse.—Greensboro News.

Wilmington can sit up and take notice next week. She will have a judge holding United States Court there who moves things easily and smoothly—the Hon. Jas. E. Boyd, who exchanges with Judge Connor, who we believe has not yet held court in that place.—Greensboro Record.

Other towns when they have an occasion like the celebration we are going to have here, have a publicity committee, who send out articles of interest to various papers all over the State, and other States. This was done in Wilmington when Taft visited that city, and the occasion was a big success. Go ahead with the celebration without doing something like this and it will be a great farce. —Newbern Sun.

We believe that the time has come when the people of North Carolina would vote for State convict labor to build roads by a bond issue. We have always urged that our convicts should not be kept on farms to raise cotton and corn in direct competition to our farmers. Several States have already abolished the penitentiary largely and are either using the convicts to build good roads or are using the proceeds from them for that purpose.—Kenansville News.

We hear growling often about keeping the same man in office so long. In 1868 C. M. Pace, then 22 years of age, was elected clerk of the Superior Court of Henderson county and he has been there ever since and bids fair to stay there the remainder of his days. Still Mr. Pace is behind the record of old man Law down at Hillsboro, who has been register of deeds well nigh ever since the year one. In truth few men are living who can remember when he was first elected. He is over 80 and is still doing business—Greensboro Record.

Now that it is out that Congressman Chas. R. Thomas had decided not to run again in the Third district the news comes from Washington that he has not expressed himself either one way or the other. It is said that Mr. Thomas had written leters two years ago to parties in this district that he would not be a candidate for Congress this time. Reliable men have seen these letters but Mr. Thomas may claim that they were not understood. Two weeks ago the News published editorially that we were reliably informed by a friend of Mr. Thomas that he would not be a candidate. So the situation now is that he may or may not. Any way Mr. Thomas ought to tell the people what his intentions are and furthermore if he wrote those letters that he would not be a candidate this time, he should stand by it like a man and go out like a man with his splendid record and the good man that he has always been at home and abroad. If those letters were misconstrued he has a right to run if he chooses; but let those letters be published, and let the people of the district decide for themselves.—Kenansville News.

Somebody Pays It.

The State of New York is spending more than $40,000,000 a year for government. The City of New York is spending more than $200,000,000 a year. The United States is spending nearly $1,000,000,000 a year. If there is anybody who thinks that this is not a factor in the cost of living, will he be kind enough to explain where all this money comes from and who pays it? Mr. Taft is disposed to hold the gold standard chiefly responsible for the increased cost of living. B. F. Yoakum told a convention of the Farmers' Union Tuesday that the retailers were taking most of the profits and the farmers and railroads were getting most of the blame. A special Massachusetts commission fixes the responsibility upon the increased gold supply and general waste and extravagance, carefully exonorating the trusts, the tariff and the trades unions. Nobody ever seems to concern himself much about taxation in relation to the cost of living. But one thing is certain. Government does not pick up these hundreds of millions of dollars in the street. This money comes out of somebody's pocket. Somebody has to earn it, and most of it represents money withdrawn from productive industry. Nobody ever heard of a country in which the cost of living decreased while the cost of government increased. Nobody ever heard of a country that succeeded in taxing itself rich.—New York World.

AFFAIRS AT RALEIGH.

Two Charters Issued—Country Club. Bank Case—Pardons.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 6.—The Merchants' Telephone Co., is chartered with $10,000 capital for constructing a line of telephones that will connect Baileys, Nash county, Wilson and Middlesex. S. B. Wills, H. B. High and N. W. Williams are among the incorporators. There is also a charter for the Newton-McArthur Lumber Co., Elizabethtown, Bladen county, capital $100,000 by J. S. Newton, W. N. Walper and others, most of the stockholders being business men of Fayetteville.

H. C. Hylifer has been elected president, P. D. Gold, vice president, A. P. Bauman, treasurer, and Graham H. Andrews, secretary of the Raleigh Country Club which is now erecting one of the handsomest club houses and equipping one of the finest club grounds to be found anywhere in this section of the country. On the board of governors are such men as W. C. Riddick, Albert L. Cox, W. H. Williamson, H. E. Litchford, James H. Pou, H. H. Carr, L. A. Mahler and Dr. R. G. Shaw.

Governor Kitchin is to be the special orator for the Memorial Day exercises here Monday, May 10th. The address and other exercises will be out at the Confederate cemetery and the Third Regiment Band and the Raleigh Light Infantry will participate.

The North Carolina Supreme Court today heard the argument in the noted State bond and bank stock case of Raleigh Savings Bank vs. the Corporation Commission and a ruling by the court is confidently expected by next Wednesday, since it is especially desired to have the questions involved settled by the time the three million dollars refunding bond issue by the State is made June 1st.

James Simms, who, six years ago when he was 16 years old, was convicted of murder in the second degree in Wilson and sentenced to nine years on the roads, receives from Governor Kitchin a pardon on recommendation of many citizens, the county commissioners and the solocitor. An investigation by the Governor showed that at the time the fatal blow was dealt the deceased, the latter had the prisoner's little brother down in a fight. The pardon is conditioned on good behavior.

In the case of John Shepherd, Wilkes county, sentenced to one year for selling whiskey, the Governor commutes the sentence to a fine of $50 and costs on condition of good behavior. In this case Shepherd has heretofore, the Governor says, paid a forfeit bond of $350.

PARENTS 'DAY.

Fine Work Being Done in Washington, N. C.—Schools Inspected.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, N. C., May 6.—For the purpose of demonstrating and advertising the work now going on in the public schools of the city, under the direction of Superintendent N. C. Newbold and his able corps of assistants, yesterday and today were observed as Parents' Day and all of the parents of children attending the schools were invited to visit the school on these days and view the children at work as well as examine specimens of work done in the various departments. Quite a large number of citizens have been attending during these two days and all express themselves as highly pleased with the excellent work that is now being done.

Child Abandoned by Mother.

(Laurinburg Exchange.)

About four miles out from Laurinburg, on the farm of Mr. J. T. Lytch, a woman by the name of Mary McLaurin has been living with her two children—one about two and a half years of age and the other an infant about six weeks old. The older one of these children has been sick for some time, and is weakly and helpless. The husband of the woman has been in more or less trouble and has left the country. The first of the week the mother took her baby and left for parts unknown, leaving her sick offspring of two and a half years alone. The child was seen crawling around and under the house which the woman had occupied. The child is sick and needs attention. A warrant was issued for the mother by 'Squire S. W. Cavington, but she has not yet been found. The county authorities have arranged to have the child cared for.

Pender Boy Honored.

(Pender Chronicle.)

It is always a pleasure to note the success of Pender's boys as their merit and training bears them to the front. Dr. Gabe Croom, so well known by the people of Burgaw and vicinity, has recently been elected to the staff of the Jersey Medical Institution. He has been for some time resident physician in St. Francis Hospital. His present appointment came after a competitive examination had been taken in which a dozen or more applicants were aspirants. He is now associated with Dr. W. F. Faison, one of the leading surgeons in Jersey City.

Newspaper Man Hurt.

(Greensboro News.)

Durham, May 5.—W. T. Bost, city editor of the Morning Herald, was severely cut and bruised late this afternoon at East Durham. When attempting to swing on to a fast moving passenger train he was thrown hard to the ground. Both hands were cut so as to require bandaging, and his right knee was so badly bruised that he walks with difficulty. Mr. Bost was able to return to his work, however, all injuries being of the flesh. He had a close escape from losing a foot under the wheels, and is duly thankful that he was not seriously injured. Mr. Bost is one of the best newspaper men in eastern North Carolina and is well and favorably known throughout the State.

Lion Fondles a Child.

In Pittsburg a savage lion fondled the hand that a child thrust into its cage. Danger to a child is sometimes great when least regarded. Often it comes through Colds, Croup, and Whooping Cough. Finance Committee in Session Yesterday Afternoon Makes Recommendation to Board of Aldermen—Budget.

Falling in line with practically every town and city of importance in the State and responding most promptly to a public sentiment in Wilmington that is unquestionable, the Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen of this city yesterday afternoon as one of its first acts in recommending subjects of license tax for the ensuing fiscal year, placed the privilege for carrying on the near-beer business at $1,000 per year.

This action will meet the approval and the commendation of every law-abiding citizen, for it has long been recognized that the large majority of these places have been a prolific source of trouble for those charged with the enforcement of the law in Wilmington, and the call has been for a restriction, if not the abolition entirely, of such places. The action is also in line with the action of the Board of Aldermen as far back as last December when all dealers were placed on notice that after June 1st, the tax would be increased to $1,000, the Mayor at that time having broken a tie on the Board in favor of the higher license. It is expected that the Board in the light of all the circumstances will accept the recommendation and place the tax at a figure which will assure the fewest possible number of such places under the strictest regulations. At the former meeting of the Board, the division of the 10 members was as follows: For the higher tax, Messrs. Ellis, Stone, Hall, Willard and Fales. For the lower tax, Messrs. Bonitz, Yopp, Hinton, West and Rehder. In view of the later developments all over the State as to the status of near-beer saloons in every community, it is expected that this alignment will be materially changed when the matter comes up for final adoption at the next meeting of the Board.

The conference yesterday afternoon was in the Mayor's office at 5 o'clock at the City Hall, those present being Chairman Louis E. Hall, and Messrs. Hinton and Stone. Some time was spent in going over the various items in the schedule but practically no changes were made except in the item noted. In view of the action of the Board of Aldermen several meetings ago in recommending that the scavenger system of the city be taken over by the city, a handsome profit being shown, it was decided to strike out altogether the section imposing a license tax on scavengers and it is presumed that the city will take over this business as an adjunct to the Sanitary Department at the beginning of the new fiscal year. As yet there has been no consideration of the rate that will be recommended for property tax, but this will be taken up later. In view of the fact that interest on the bond issues for streets, water and sewerage has to be paid out of the general fund, instead of from funds belonging to those departments in addition to the running expenses of the city, it may be necessary to make a slight increase, but this will be obviated if possible. The reduction last year was made possible only from the fact that the former administration turned over to the present administration something like $50,000. The Committee, however, and the Board of Audit and Finance, will thresh out this problem later.

The Committee had hoped yesterday afternoon to have in the estimates from the various departments for their expenses for the ensuing fiscal year, but only a few of them were in and until these are made up and handed in, the Committee cannot arrive at the amount of the budget and the amount of revenue necessary to be derived. It is hoped to have these in within the next few days when the committee will resume its sittings and have the budget ready at as an early date as possible.

T. P. A'S. IN TWIN CITY.

State Convention Convened in Winston-Salem Yesterday.

Messrs. J. S. Funchess and T. D. Love are in Winston-Salem attending the annual convention of the Travelers' Protective Association of North Carolina as delegates from Post G., of this city, leaving for the Twin City Thursday evening. Winston-Salem has made elaborate preparations for the entertainment of the visitors and the attendance is the largest in the history of the association. Messrs. Funchess and Love are expected to return Saturday night or Sunday. The convention was called to order at 2:30 o'clock yesterday by State President Frank R. Hewitt, of Asheville. After the invocation by Rev. E. S. Crosland, chaplain of Post B. Winston, and pastor of Calvary Moravian church, the address of welcome was delivered by Mayor O. B. Eaton, of Winston, an orator of wide reputation, and the response was by Mr. Charles G. Lee, of Asheville. This was followed by remarks by Rev. Dr. Neal L. Anderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of Winston, and State chaplain of the T. P. A. At 4:30 o'clock the delegation was scheduled to leave for an automobile ride over the city, and 8:30 P. M. the first business session was held. At 11 P. M. refreshments were served. According to the programme for today the convention will be called to order at 9 o'clock and after the transaction of unfinished business and selection of the next meeting place, the traveling men will board special cars for Nissen Park, four miles south of Winston, where an old-fashioned barbecue will be served and amusements of all kinds indulged in.

STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

Programme Outlined for the 12th Annual Meeting to be Held at Wrightsville Beach the Latter Part of June.

One of the most important of the several big conventions to be held at Wrightsville Beach this Summer is the 12th annual meeting of the North Carolina Bar Association, which meets in the assembly hall of Seashore Hotel June 28th, 29th and 30th, arrangements for the entertainment of which are now being made by a local committee composed of Thos. W. Davis, Esq., chairman, Thos. D. Meares, Jr., Esq., and Robert Ruark, Esq.

Several meetings of the committee have been held recently and the programme of entertainment will be announced in full in a short time.

The convention will be called to order at 8:30 o'clock on the evening of June 28th, by Hon. E. W. Timberlake, of Raleigh, chairman of the executive committee. This meeting will be in the nature of a welcome to the visitors and the address on behalf of the Wilmington bar will be delivered by Herbert McClammy, Esq., one of the ablest members of the local bar and a prominent candidate for Congress in this district. The response will be made by Hon. Locke Craig, of Asheville, one of the leading legal lights of the State and who has many warm friends in Wilmington. This will be followed by the annual address of the president, Col. John W. Hinsdale, of Raleigh. On the following morning, June 29th, the association will hear an address by Hon. N. A. McLean, of Lumberton, and at the evening session the principal address will be made by James Byrne, Esq., of New York City. On Friday morning, June 30th, the visitors will be entertained by the Wilmington bar, arrangements for which are now being made by the committee. The feature of the evening session will be an address by W. H. Pace, Esq., of Raleigh.

The indications are that the meeting will be largely attended by members of the profession from all parts of the State, some of whom are expected to be accompanied by their wives and other members of their families. The association met here a few years ago and the sojourn at the beach was both delightful and profitable and the meeting this year promises to eclipse all former gatherings in both respects.

ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT.

Action of Board of Audit and Finance is Set Forth.

Mr. M. G. Tiencken, member of the Board of Audit and Finance, to whom was delegated the authority to formulate in legal form and understanding the action of the Board at its last meeting with reference to the new engineering department of the city, has filed with the clerk, Capt. Thos. D. Meares, the following, which seems to cover the case admirably:

"Under and in accordance with the terms and conditions of an ordinance adopted by the Board of Aldermen, as per copy transmitted to this Board, the same being hereto appended, the salary of the City Engineer is hereby fixed at Twenty-five hundred dollars per annum, under and subject to the following terms and understanding:

"1. Of the salary named, Seven hundred dollars is to be provided for in the regular budget of the city, as one of the salaries of officials, and the remaining Eighteen hundred dollars is to be paid by the Street Commission, subject, however, to any further division that may be ordered between the Street Commission and the Water and Sewerage Commission.

"2. The entire time and services of the City Engineer elected are to be given to the city of Wilmington.

"3. All engineering work needed by the city is to be done by and through the City Engineer's office, such work to include the requirements of the Mayor and Board of Aldermen, the Street Commission and the Water and Sewerage Commission, and no other services to be paid for, except as may from time to time be allowed and provided for by this Board.

"4. All expenses of the City Engineer's office, including assistants, are to be paid for by the Street Commission, out of the bond issue, subject, however, to such further division between that Commission and the Water and Sewerage Commission, as may be authorized and directed by this Board.

"5. All fees for services rendered individuals, in survey of lots, running property lines, and adjusting levels for private convenience, are to inure to the City and be paid over to the City Treasurer."

It is not understood that under the terms of the new ordinance that property owners desiring to build will be taxed with the fee of $5 when they merely desire to have street lines and street levels.

Mr. Malloy's Condition.

WILL OBSERVE MOTHER'S DAY

Wilmington to Join Other Cities in Honoring Motherhood—Mayor's Proclamation—Special Meetings Arranged.

In accordance with the beautiful annual custom inaugurated four years ago by Anna Jarvis, of Philadelphia, the second Sunday in May, which is tomorrow, will be observed throughout the length and breadth of this country and in many other countries as Mother's Day, the special object being to honor and uplift motherhood and to give comfort and happiness to "the best mother who ever lived." The day will be appropriately observed in Wilmington by the wearing of the white flower, the emblem of the movement, and by some special meetings.

General Secretary Edwin Kettle has aranged for two special meetings to be held at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. in celebration of the day. The first meeting will be at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, when the junior Department will hear an address by Mr. J. B. Huntington, the physical director. All boys between the ages of 14 and 17 are cordially invited to attend. At 5 o'clock in the afternoon the meeting for men will be addressed by Rev. Thos. A. Smoot, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, who will have as his subject, "A Mother's Vision," which is expected to be especially fine. A feature of the meeting will be a duet by Mr. J. Fenley and Mr. J. B. Huntington. The men of the city are extended a most cordial invitation to attend the meeting.

Mayor Walter G. MacRae yesterday issued the following proclamation, calling on the people of the city to observe the day:

"To the People of Wilmington:

"As Sunday, May the 8th, has been set apart as Mother's Day, it has been suggested that the Mayor call attention to the fact and recommend a general observance of the day, and he cheerfully follows this suggestion. I hereby recommend that the day be observed by every man and boy by wearing a white flower, emblem of purity, in honor of his mother. It is fitting that Wilmington should take part in the celebration of the day.

"WALTER G. MacRae,
"Mayor."

The second Sunday of each May has been designated by the founder as a day of observance in every part of the world of the love and reverence men, women and children owe to a good mother. The day is for the very best and very worst man or woman, and all others. The following suggestions as to the observance of the day have been given by the founder: "Loving remembrance of your mother (or her memory) through some distinct act of kindness, tribute, visit or letter. Live this day as your mother would have you. If you can, have her as your guest of honor. Or, go back home and give her pleasure. Or, write her a letter of praise and gratitude—send a gift with it, or at least the 'memory flower.' No one is too poor or busy to send a letter home. Do something to show your mother that she is 'Queen of the May' in your heart. If she is not living, perhaps you can place on her grave the white flowers of love and fidelity, not as a morbid sentiment, but in glad recognition that she was 'the best mother who ever lived.'"

The emblem of the day is the white flower and while any flower may be worn, the white carnation is the special flower for the day. Its whiteness stands for purity; its form, beauty; its fragrance, love; its wide field of growth, charity; its lasting qualities, faithfulness; "Carnation," mother sufferings of the flesh—all a true mother's attributes.

The indications are that the day will be more generally observed this year than ever before by the wearing of white flowers and in attendance upon special services arranged in celebration of the day.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

A Number of Cases Were Investigated at Yesterday's Sitting.

In the Recorder's court yesterday morning Jessie McGhee and Jim Edwards, colored, were found not guilty of the charge of living together illegally, the case coming up from Justice Harriss' court. The Recorder announced his decision in two other cases against Edwards, tried at Thursday's session. The case charging carrying concealed weapons was dismissed and in the one for assault on Cornie Larkins judgment was suspended upon payment of costs. W. M. Miller, colored, who was tried Thursday on the charge of drunkenness, being recognized for costs, was again before the court for drunkenness. He was fined $5 and costs and unless he is able to raise the amount of the fine and the costs in both cases he will be sent to the roads for 60 days. A case against Oscar Bawgell, a young white man, charged with abandonment, was dismissed, the evidence being insufficient to support the charge. The preliminary investigation was before Justice Harriss yesterday morning. George Miller was found guilty of simple assault on Robert Murray and required to pay a fine of $5 and costs. G. B. Craig and E. S. Marshburn, young white boys, were found guilty of the charge of an affray and required to pay the costs.

RURAL BUILDING AND LOAN

Fifth Annual Meeting Held Yesterday Finances in Good Shape as Shown by Reports—Election of Officers, Etc.

The fifth annual meeting of the Rural Building & Loan Association was held at the office of Secretary and Treasurer James Owen Reilly, 118 Princess street, at 5:30 P. M. yesterday. Mr. A. G. Warren was called upon to act as chairman and Mr. Jas. Owen Reilly acted as secretary. There being a large majority of shares represented in person and by proxy, the meeting was declared open for business.

The minutes of the fourth annual meeting were read and adopted. The annual report, as made to Insurance Commissioner Young was read, showing the association to be in a first-class condition.

The report of the auditing committee, consisting of Messrs. W. A. McGirt, D. M. Carroll and E. O. Toomer, was read and they reported that they had checked over all the loans and examined the books and found them correct and kept in a neat and accurate manner. The report was received.

President Roger Moore reported that the assets of the association had been increased over $15,000 since the last annual meeting, and that the Association was growing in a very healthy manner, and that all loans were passed upon by the Board of Directors before they were granted, and every loan was first-class in every way, and that the association had many stockholders who lived out of Wilmington.

On motion the following directors were elected for the ensuing year: C. C. Chadbourn, A. G. Warren, Roger Moore, J. Holmes Davis, J. F. Jarman, B. O. Stone, A. O. McEachern, C. P. B. Mahler, Marshall Shrier, H. F. Wilder, M. Bellamy, Jr., J. A. McGeachy, Dr. T. B. Carroll, Jno. S. McEachern and James Owen Reilly.

The condensed statement of the condition of the association shows: Assets—Loans on mortgages, $39,340; loans on shares, $8,411.30; cash in bank, $317.24; Total, $48,068.54.

Liabilities—Due to shareholders, installments paid, $33,621; due shareholders, earnings credited, $3,247.54; bills payable, money borrowed, $11,200. Total, $48,068.54.

The stockholders' meeting adjourned and the directors met and elected Roger Moore, president; J. Holmes Davis, vice president; Attorney, Marsden Bellamy, Jr.; secretary and treasurer, James Owen Reilly. The directors decided to open the 14th series on Saturday, June 4th.

Death of Little Daughter.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hart will tenderly sympathize with them in the death of their four-months-old daughter, Sarah A. Hart, whose death occurred at the family residence, No. 513 Queen street, yesterday morning. The little one was a twin sister to the little daughter who died about a week or ten days ago. The funeral services were held from the residence at 4:30 yesterday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Thos. P. Noe, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, and the interment was in Bellevue cemetery.

Milk for Sick Infants.

It is announced that a movement has been started in Wilmington for the establishment of a public dispensary where absolutely pure milk may be dispensed for sick infants. It is proposed to have in connection with the dispensary the association of a staff of trained nurses and physicians. The idea in view is not to enter into competition with the local dairies, but to establish a valuable aid to the medical equipment of the city, especially during the Summer, when the matter is so insistent.

Strawberry Shipments.

The strawberry movement through South Rocky Mount yesterday consisted of only 41 cars, the cool weather of the past few days apparently having considerably retarded ripening. The distribution yesterday was as follows: Pittsburg 11, Albany, Buffalo, Syracuse and New York 3 each, Springfield, Rochester, Bridgeport 2 each, Montreal, Washington, Cleveland, Worcester, Utica, Troy, Burlington, Norwich, Erie, Boston, Philadelphia and Columbus one each.

GOES TO CAROLINA BEACH.

Steamer Wilmington's Sunday Trip Will be First of Season.

The steamer Wilmington on an excursion trip to Southport and to sea Sunday will stop at Carolina Beach pier for the first excursion trip of the season, which means the opening of this pleasure resort. During the Winter months a number of improvements have been made at the beach and it is expected that large crowds as usual, will visit it throughout the season.

The Wilmington for the past week has been tied up at the wharf of the Wilmington Iron Works, where she has been re-painted and otherwise repaired. She will be placed in service again today and is in readiness for the Summer months. The tug Blanche, Capt. Dosher, has been making the trips to Southport in her place. On Sunday the boat will leave the wharf at 10 A. M. returning to the city at 6 P. M.

STEAMER LYON DISABLED.

Rudder Broke While Steamer Was Bound for Wilmington.

The steamer C. W. Lyon, Capt. Smith, while bound to this city from Fayetteville was disabled by the breaking of her rudder at Elwell yesterday and had to be towed back to Fayetteville, where she will remain for about a week for repairs. The steamer was due here yesterday, but the accident necessitated the City of Fayetteville's taking her place on the run and the latter is expected today.

The Lyon had a large cargo when she broke down and was towing a scow. The accident to the vessel brought the City of Fayetteville to come to her assistance immediately and the cargo was transferred, causing a delay of a day in the trip to this city. The City of Fayetteville had been temporarily laid up at Fayetteville to receive an overhauling.

HAD PLEASANT OUTING.

Sunday School of Church of Good Shepherd Visits the Beach.

Two hundred and twenty-three members of the Sunday School of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Episcopal, Mr. J. H. Boatwright, superintendent, were guests yesterday of the Tidewater Power Company for their annual outing at Wrightsville Beach. The children went down and returned on special cars provided by the company and which were operated under the personal supervision of Captain Corbett, of the Tidewater Company, who is a past master in providing entertainment for children. The day was very pleasantly spent and the children were profuse in their expressions of thanks to the company's representative. Mr. Clarence Maffitt kindly furnished graphophone music and the boys and girls enjoyed a delightful dance at Lumina.

FINE VIEW OF THE COMET.

Celestial Wanderer Seen by Many in the Heavens Yesterday.

Those who were so fortunate, or rather unfortunate, as to be up yesterday morning before day, between 3 and 4 o'clock, had a fine view of Halley's comet in "a little to the north of east." The comet was brilliant and its tail was visible for some considerable distance, extending upward. Watchman R. H. Allen, of the Wynnewood Lumber Co., says that it could be plainly seen from that point of vantage as early as 3 o'clock, while many people down town observed it until nearly daybreak. The appearance of the comet in such brilliance was frequently commented upon yesterday and many calls were left for this morning.

Herbert McClammy, Esq., to Speak to Graduating Class There.

Herbert McClammy, Esq., of the Wilmington bar, has received and accepted an invitation to deliver the annual address to the graduating class of the graded schools of Southport on the evening of May 10th. Mr. McClammy is one of the most brilliant speakers at the Wilmington bar and will be heard with rare interest and pleasure by the people of Southport and Brunswick county on this occasion. Southport has an exceptionally fine system of graded schools and the people of the town take much pride in them. The commencement exercises this year promise to be of a high order and to be largely attended.

COTTON WAS SEIZED.

Discharging 2,000 Bales From Steamer at Mobile.

Mobile, Ala., May 6.—The work of discharging the 2,000 bales of cotton from the holds of the British steamship Meltonian, consigned to Knight, Yancey & Co., to Latham & Co., Havre, France, and seized for creditors by the United States marshal, was begun today. This cotton, with 2,200 bales on the local wharf seized, will be sold unless a replevin bond of $345,000 is given.

Three thousand bales of cotton formerly owned by the Knight, Yancey & Co., were sold today on the Cotton Exchange in behalf of the People's Bank of this city, holding warehouse receipts. The buyers were McFadden Brothers, of Philadelphia, and the price paid was 14 1-4 cents per pound, or approximately $210,000.

President White, of the firm, says that the receivers will get back all in excess of what was due the bank—$40,000.

Many members of the congregation of Immanuel Presbyterian Church attended the pleasing entertainment given at the church last night by the Young Men's Baraca Class and the very attractive progremme amused and entertained for nearly two hours. The features of the programme were: Solo, "Any Old Port in Time of Storm", by Mr. Harold Pate; two pleasing recitations, by Mrs. J. S. Crowley, one a negro dialect and the other Irish brogue; a cornet solo by Mr. Eugene McD. Reynolds; a charming reading by Miss Alma Kermon and selections by Mr. Herbert E. Walton on guitar and harp. No action was taken, however, by the club with reference to erecting a building. The newly elected officers will be installed at a reception to be given some time soon by Mrs. R. W. Hicks, the retiring president.

The entertainment given at Trinity Methodist Church last night by the Epworth League was a most successful affair in every respect, exceeding the most sanguine expectations of those who arranged it. "Living Pictures" was the title of the entertainment and the pantomimes pleased immensely all who were present. Rev. E. R. Welch, the pastor, presided and announced the numbers of the programme. No admission was charged, but a free-will offering was taken, netting the league $28. After the programme of exercises refreshments were served in the basement of the church. Already numerous requests have been received for a repetition of the entertainment and it is probable that it will be given again in about two weeks.

JUNIORS DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED SENIORS.

The first floor of the handsome new building of Mr. James F. Woolvin, on Princess, between Second and Third streets, presented a most animated and beautiful scene last night, the occasion being a reception given by the Junior Class of the High School in honor of the Senior Class. Mr. Woolvin, who generously tendered the use of his building for the event, was present and personally welcomed the young people and other guests. The beautiful decorations, carrying out in a most effective manner the idea of flowers, the charming and attractive young ladies of the two classes and the delightful music combined to make the occasion one long to be remembered by those in attendance. The arrangements for the very pleasing affair were in charge of Miss Agnes Carr, the very popular and efficient teacher of the Junior Class, who was ably assisted by the young ladies and boys of the class. The idea of flowers was carried out in all the decorations, in gowns worn by the young ladies of the two classes and in the refreshments served. Delicious punch was served from an old fashioned well in one corner of the building by Misses Carrie Hashagen, Lila Williams, Ruth Lynch, Vida Dickinson, Marguerite Solomon and Louise Sneed of the Sophomore class. After serving punch a number of charades and tableaux were given and they proved very enjoyable indeed. Miss Agnes Chasten presided at the piano and Miss Katie Foard sang several charming solos.

In addition to the members of the two classes there were present J. O. Carr, Esq., chairman of the County Board of Education; Messrs. James H. Chadbourn and Chas. W. Worth, members of the city school committee; Mr. J. J. Blair, superintendent of schools; Mr. P. E. Seagle, principal of the High School; Mrs. Seagle and practically all the High School teachers, besides a few other invited guests.

The members of the Senior Class in whose honor the charming affair was given are: Misses Eva Beery, Hazel Black, Maggie Bowden, Lottie Frink, Josephine Harriss, Jessie Holmes, Adeline Keith, Emma Hazel King, Emma Belle LeGwin, Emma Lossen, Fannie Mitchell, Laura Reid, Etta Salling, Ethel Solomon, Emily Westbrook, Ursula Willis, Mae Wilson, Messrs. BIG DAMAGES FROM A. C. L.

Lad Who Was Roughly Used by Railroad Detective.

Fayetteville, N. C., May 6.—After remaining out two hours in Cumberland Superior Court last night the jury in the case gave G. W. Jones, of Charleston, S. C., a verdict of $11,621 in his suit against the A. C. L. Railroad. The Observer gives this account of the case:

"Young Jones, en route from Rocky Mount to Florence, was riding on a freight, and when he reached Fayetteville, H. Y. Scarborough, a Coast Line detective found him in an empty box car. Calling him to come out, he asked if any of the crew knew he was there, and Jones told him he was riding at the invitation of the fireman and that the head brakeman had opened the door for him and put him in that car. Jones walked away.

"Scarborough called him to come back, and when he turned between two cars, ran up within two feet of the plaintiff and shot him with a breach loader, the big shot entering his right leg and breaking it. The affair occurred the 13th of September, 1908.

"The railroad denied its liability, saying Scarborough was acting on behalf of the State, having been commissioned a special policeman by the Governor, and that he was not acting for defendant nor in the scope of his employment, and that he had arrested Jones and had a right to shoot to prevent an escape. Messrs. H. L. Brothers, and Sinclair & Dye were the plaintiff's attorneys and Messrs. Rose & Rose represented the railroad."

MR. PEMBROKE WOODWARD.

Passed Away in Fayetteville on Thursday Night.

Fayetteville, N. C., May 6.—The Observer this afternoon announces the death of Mr. Pembroke Woodward, at his home, Vernon Place, on Haymount, last night at 8 o'clock, aged 60 years. Around his bedside were assembled all of his brothers and sisters: Mr. Geo. W. Woodward, of Durham; Mr. Joel Woodward, of Stillmore, Ga.; Mrs. W. T. Whitehead, of Enfield; Mrs. Geo. H. Hall, of Red Springs; Mrs. D. A. McMillan, and Miss Alice Woodward, of this city. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning from the residence at 10:30 o'clock.

Mr. Woodward was born in the house in which he died, but in early life went to New York City, where he held several responsible positions, and had the confidence of a number of financiers. At one time he was a purser on a steamer running from New York to Charleston and in latter days he was wont to tell many interesting tales of his sea life. Since returning to Fayetteville a number of years ago, broken in health, he has been an expert bookkeeper and accountant. Pem Woodward, as he was familiarly called, was a man of the highest principles, well read, a delightful talker, and possessed of a courtesy seldom found in these days of strenuous life.

TRADE IS STILL QUIET.

Caused by Crop Situation—Bradstreet's Report.

New York, May 6.—Bradstreets tomorrow will say: Trade as a whole is still quiet, pending clearer views of crop and price outcome, but there is evidence of a rather more cheerful feeling in agricultural sections, where injury from the recent cold wave proves to have been rather exaggerated and the security markets are also stronger on the evidence of enlarging demand for American bonds abroad.

The building trade report for April shows good gains over earlier months. The iron trade is irregular. Pig iron production is being curtailed, but finishing mills are still well employed.

There is a slightly better feeling in cotton goods, though the price situation there is a bar to active trade. The woolen goods manufacturing trades are irregular.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending with May 5th were 191 against 189 last week and 214 in the like week of 1909.

PARALYTIC TO PRISON

Sentenced to Eight Years in Franklin Jail For Manslaughter.

Franklin, Ky., May 6.—No man who has ever been confined in the State penitentiary has shown greater indifference to the clanging behind him of the big gates than did John Huff, who was brought here from Letcher county yesterday to serve an eight-year sentence for manslaughter.

Huff is a hopeless paralytic, unable to move hand or foot. He was partially paralzed at the trial at which he was convicted and later sunered a second stroke, which completely incapacitated him.

Mexican MUSTANG LINIMENT

An unfailing remedy for the ills of your Livestock and especially valuable in cases of Caked Udder and Sore Teats in Cows.

Saves Loss in the Dairy.

LYON MANUFACTURING CO.,
BROOKLYN, N. Y.

GENTLEMEN:—It seems to me among your claims as to the efficacy of Mexican Mustang Liniment you hardly give prominence enough to its wonderful curative power on inflamed and caked udder in cows. I have used it for two years in my stable and since I began its use have not had a case which was not relieved by a few applications. A thorough bathing of the udder with hot water followed by gentle and persistent rubbing in of the "Mustang" will, I believe, cure any case, leaving the teats in good order—unless suppuration has already begun. If all others in the dairy business knew this it would save much worry and loss. Respectfully,

MRS. A. I. YOUNG,

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, May 6.—The cotton market was not active but ruled very nervous and irregular today with the close firm at a net advance of nine points to a decline of one point, near months showing the greatest gains. The opening was steady at a decline of 1 to 6 points generally 4 to 6 points lower, in response to lower cables and as a result of scattering liquidation due to nervousness over the renewal of the grand jury proceedings against an alleged bull pool and uneasiness as to the bearing of King Edward's condition upon British trade. Leading bull interests came to the market's support at the decline, bidding for considerable stocks of May and July, there was a prospect for bull week-end figures and shortly after the call prices rallied with local shorts covering on the advance. The old crop sold up to about the closing figures of last night but the new crop followed rather slowly and during the middle of the day the whole list eased off again under a renewal of scattering liquidation and a little local selling of late positions encouraged by prospects for rains in the south between now and Sunday. After easing off to a net loss of about 4 to 5 points, however, the market rallied in the late trading on bull support and covering which was probably influenced to some extent by bullish visible supply figures. The close was at practically the best prices of the day. The official weather forecast was for unsettled weather or showers in many sections of the south and it was claimed that the lines on the weather may suggested rains within the next two or three days. The into-sight figures were small and spinners' takings according to the New York cotton exchange were 107,000 bales against 238,000 for the same week last year. Southern spot markets officially reported early were generally unchanged.

Receipts at the ports today were 9,280 bales against 8,437 last week and 19,535 last year. For the week 70,000 bales against 67,163 last week and 115,096 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 848 bales against 3,313 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 15.25; middling gulf 15.50; sales were 10,800 bales.

Futures opened steady and closed firm.

WEEKLY COTTON REVIEW.

New York, May 6.—Cotton has advanced owing partly to bull support and partly to rumors that large shipments would be made from the local stock both to the South and to Europe. It is also insisted that if Texas escaped serious injury by the recent frost the section of the belt east of the Mississippi has suffered more or less serious damage. Much re-planting, it is stated, will be necessary. This means that the crop is not going to get an early and splendid start, such as was generally desired over the smallness of last year's yield. The spot situation continues strong and English buyers are here in force. It is said that in the year future some 30,000 bales are likely to be shipped to Europe from the local stock, and that Southern mills have agreed to take a large quantity. In fact, it is insisted that upward of 100,000 bales will go back to the Southern mills as quickly as possible. Liverpool, Bremen and Denmark, France, it is also stated, will take considerable quantities, possibly in part on consignment. Meantime some improvement in the cotton goods trade in this country is taking place. Certainly the tone of the cotton goods market is somewhat firmer and, indeed, some fabrics have recently advanced. Manchester's trade, moreover, is improving and reports from Germany stated that sales are increasing there also. Roughly, the estimates of acreage of food crops, owing to the high prices crease of 2 1-2 to 3 1-2 per cent. The reason for the comparatively moderate increase, it appears, is the widespread disposition in the South to increase the acreage of foo dcrops, owing to the high prices ruling for such supplies. Europe has been buying the new crop months and Wall street's purchases of the May option have attracted some attention. Large spot interests have been buying July. Talk is to the effect that the bull leader will sooner or later be transferred to July. Meantime Texas and most other States need good soaking rains to bring up the re-planted cotton. Bull leaders have bid for block of May as much 100,000 bales and also for large amounts of July. Yet speculation as a whole, is quiet. Spot markets are dull. The crop outlook in Texas is believed to be in the main favorable. Prices of raw cotton are high and there is talk of possible trouble with operatives in New England and Lancashire growing out of the wage question. Many hold aloof, fearing to have anything to do with what they regard as a clique market. But the crop is small. Liverpool stocks are half a million bales below those of a year ago, and many of the mills at home and abroad are believed to be carrying unusually small supplies. A big crop in the general estimate is needed this year, failing which, it is predicted that prices will advance. It is now largely a weather market with bulls plainly standing by their deal in May and apparently also in July. The close was stronger owing to increased spinners' takings.

HUBBARD BROS' LETTER

Market Continues at Standstill—The King's Illness.

New York, May 6.—The market continues at a standstill with no outside business. Some complaints of needed rains came from the South, but not sufficient to cause any demand here. The dullness is intensified by the advices from England of the King's illness, and the trade as for some days, is awaiting developments. The attitude of the bull leaders is unchanged, and on the slightest weakness bids for the inside positions restore the equilibrium of the market.

THE STOCK MARKET.

New York, May 6.—Explanation for action of financial markets turned to the principal news event of the day, alarming illness of the King of England. The marking down of prices at the New York Stock Exchange was intended obviously, as an adjustment to an expected shock. The actual volume of sales was not large, but the proportion for London account was greater than usual.

There is no clear reason why the passing of the English succession to the throne should affect the value of American securities or for that matter, English securities. The precedent of the death of Queen Victoria showed financial markets unruffled. The present situation differs in some respects, both political and financial.

Views in Wall street on this matter were vague, but their influence in begging a cautious spirit in the speculation was none the less on that account. As it happens, the money position in London is extraordinarily strong.

The sensitiveness of the New York market to bad news was increased by the fact of the sharp advance which has occurred in the course of the two previous days. Sufficient profit had accrued to offer inducement for selling to realize. There was disappointment perceptible over the lack of formal confirmation of the reports of bond sales to foreigners.

The stock market was not left without support and an effective mid-session rally resulted from these operations. It was accompanied by special strength at one or two points, especially Brooklyn Rapid Transit. That stock and Chesapeake and Ohio were influenced by rumors of dividend increases. A rally also followed the publication of the preliminary estimates of the week's currency movement. From these it appeared that the banks have been gaining large sums in cash by receipts from the interior. The money market was easier today both on call and on time, in consonance with this promise.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value were $2,381,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day were 716,800 shares.

THE FINANCIAL MARKET.

New York, May 6.—Money on call easy 1-2 to 4 per cent., ruling rate 3 3-4; closing bid 3 1-2, offered at 3 3-4. Time loans easy; sixty days and ninety days 4 per cent., six months 4 to 4 1-4 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 4 3-4 to 5 1-4 per cent. Sterling exchange steady with actual business in bankers bills at 4.8395 to 4.8405 for sixty day bills and at 4.8630 for demand. Commercial bills 4.83 3-8 to 4 3-4. Bar silver 53 7-8. Mexican dollars 44.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

GODWIN FOR CONGRESS.

Fair Bluff, Columbus County, Write o! Their Choice.

As the time is rapidly approaching to select a standard bearer to lead, the Democratic party of the Sixth Congressional district on to successive victory, the citizens of Fair Bluff desire to take time by the forelock and express profound conviction as to the duties of the citizens of this district. We have talked the matter over seriously among ourselves and we continue to talk the matter over from every standpoint, and our opinion in a nutshell is this: It is the duty of this district, without the shadow of even a reasonable doubt, to elect the Hon. H. L. Godwin to succeed himself. We are well aware of the fact that several prominent citizens have already intimated through themselves and friends that they desire to go to Congress the next time and we have not a word to say against any of these men. But, the simple fact that some mighty good men want to go to Congress as the old darkey says is not the pint in law. In sending a man to Congress we have to consult the permanent interest of the entire district. Hitherto one of the fatal mistakes of the people of this district is to elect a man and keep him in Congress just long enough to initiate him, get the green off his hide and just as soon as he has learned the ropes and is qualified to do something, ask him to return home and then trot a greenhorn in his place to consume from two to four years in learning where to put his hat and overcoat. This is madness and folly and is one of the reasons why we Southern people can't get what we want. The North makes no such blunders but keeps both Senators and Representatives in Congress long enough to do something. We will take but one illustration and quote from the official Congressional Directory, Joseph Gurney Cannon, Republican, was born at Guilford, N. C., May 7th, 1836; was elected to the 42nd, 43rd, 44th, 45th, 46th, 47th, 48th, 49th, 50th, 51st, 52nd, 53rd, 54th, 55th, 56th, 57th, 58th, 59th, and 60th Congresses and re-elected to the 61st Congress. Mr. Cannon was elected Speaker in the 58th, 59th 60th and 61st Congresses. If you will examine the Congressional Record you will find what is true of Mr. Cannon's true of many others from the North. It is no wonder the Northern people get what they want and we folks down South sit still with folded hands and blinded eyes and let this fool work go on year after year. But the time has come for us to change our way of doing business. We have a good and faithful Congressman in Mr. Godwin and let us keep him in Washington. He has made us a good Congressman and if we send him back with his past experience he will do still greater work for us in the future. Suppose we send a new man in his place. It makes no difference how smart he may be, it will take him from two to four years to learn how to do and before he learns the fresh and sophomore class to become a dignified senior, junior, some of us will be dead. Let us send Godwin back by a larger majority than ever before and we will never regret it. As already intimated we have nothing to say against the other gentlemen who want to go to Congress, but we guarantee that if they will eliminate from their party and minds just for a moment their own personal ambition they will at once agree with us that the great mistake of the South is changing Congressmen too often.

THE RAILROAD BILL.

President Taft Whipping Them Into Line in Congress.

Washington, May 6.—Immediately after his return to the city today President Taft began a series of conferences regarding the status of his railroad bill in the two houses of Congress. The situation in the Senate is the one which seems to concern the President the most at this time for he undoubtedly places his faith in the ability of the Republican majority in that body to bring the measure out in acceptable shape.

Senators Crane and Elkins were at the White House early in the morning. They are to resume their conference with the President tomorrow.

Tonight Senator Root went to the White House and had an extended talk with Mr. Taft. He will also be at tomorrow's conference. The President's wants to know just what the situation is and what the plans of the Senate leaders are. Upon the information he receives tomorrow probably will rest his decision whether or not at Passaic, N. J., on Monday night he will devote himself to the subject of pending legislation. As a vote is likely next week, the President today cancelled an engagement to witness the launching of the battleship Florida at the New York navy yard on Thursday.

of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of the British Dominions beyond the seats, King Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India", was his title. Subject to fierce criticism in his youth because of his manner of life, he lived down a rather unenviable reputation through long years of more careful conduct, and succeeded in winning the confidence of all the people as almost no other sovereign of Great Britain, except his mother, Queen Victoria, had done. As a statesman, he was active and successful, particularly in the field of foreign affairs. He was an able diplomat, and in all the important questions of foreign policy he made himself felt.

In domestic politics he was less active, but he succeeded in strengthening the position of the monarchy with the masses, effectually killing whatever anti-Royalist sentiment existed at the time of his accession.

Edward VII. assumed the throne on the death of Queen Victoria in January 22, 1901, so that he was King less than ten years.

It was as a sportsman that the British people loved most to think of him. He was an enthusiastic patron of horse racing, and was fond of yacht racing, cricket, athletics and shooting. His love of cards was almost a passion in his earlier days and his gambling for high stakes got him in trouble several times.

In personal appearance the King was the typical Englishman. He was rather below the average stature of strong and heavy build. His ruddy face betokened good health and good spirits up to a short time ago. He wore his gray beard trimmed to a sharp point. His thin circle of gray haid diminished and he was quite bald. Even in his latter days he continued to be one of the best dressed men in Europe and was regarded as a model for quiet refinement of dress and bearing.

At the State functions in which he participated King Edward revived all the pomp and circumstance of medieval ways.

Tactfulness which he possessed to a marked degree, was a conspicuous characteristic of the late King, although he was as frank, loyal and warm hearted always. Those who associated with him have said that he was emphatically the "good fellow", simple and courteous, but a stickler for the deference which his rank demanded.

He was born at Buckingham Palace on November 9th, 1841, the son of Queen Victoria and Prince Albert, of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha. Education by private tutors on a plan outlined by his father, he later studied at Edinburgh, Oxford and Cambridge. A long period of travel followed, during which he went over Europe and the East. In 1860 he made a triumphal tour through the United States and Canada. The Prince was married on March 10th, 1863 to Princess Alexandra, oldest daughter of the Danish Prince, who became some months later King Christian IX. Six children were born, two of whom—the Duke of Clarence and Prince Alexander—died. The surviving children are George Frederick, Prince of Wales; Duke of Cornwall and York, who now becomes King; Princess Louise, who was married to the Duke of Fife; Princess Victoria Alexandra, and Princess Maud Charlotte, who was married to Prince Carl of Denmark, now King Haakon VII. of Norway. The King was of the House of Hanover, which dates from the accession to the throne of King George I. in 1714.

Twice before ascending the throne Edward's life was despaired of. In 1871 he was so seriously ill with typhoid fever that for weeks his death was expected. In 1898 he fell on the stairs during a visit to Baron Ferdinand de Rothschild at Weddesden Mannor and fractured a knee cap. Complications ensued and for a time his condition was dangerous.

His coronation, originally set for June 26, 1902, and postponed until August 9th, on account of illness, was a pageant of almost unparalleled splendor, and the occasion of a celebration throughout the world. His short reign was a peaceful one, after the conclusion of the Boer war, which was in progress when he became King. Several times the King's life has been in danger from anarchists or cranks.

The King was always a great traveler and was nearly as well known on the boulevards of Paris and in the Casinos of Biarritz and Hamburg as he was along Picadilly. He always exhibited a marked preference for the society of Americans.

Sketch of New Ruler.

George Frederick Ernest Albert, Prince of Wales, who now becomes King, is the second son of King Edward and Queen Alexandra and was born at Marlborough house on June 3rd, 1865, seventeen months after the birth of his older brother, the late Duke of Clarence. He and his brother entered the navy together as cadets. Then he started on a three year voyage around the world.

In 1892 when his brother died, he became heir apparent and took his seat in the House of Lords as Duke of York. He married Princess Victoria May of Teck, on July 6th, 1893 Six children were born to them.

The Prince became Duke of Cornwall when his father took the throne and soon thereafter started on a tour of the colonies. He opened the first Parliament of the commonwealth of Australia.

In the Fall of 1905 he went to India. His Indian trip was generally regarded as not a success from a political view point.

In 1908 he visited Canada to attend the celebration of Quebec.

The Prince is less democratic than was his father and does not have such an ardent love for sports. It has been predicted therefore that after his accession to the throne the court gaiety which was always a feature during Edward's reign will be less marked.

Taft's Message of Sympathy.

Washington, May 6.—President Taft upon learning of the death of King Edward wrote the following message of condolence to her majesty, Queen Alexandra, which was cabled to Buckingham Palace tonight:

"On the sad occasion of the death of King Edward, I offer to your majesty and to your son, his illustrious successor, the most profound sympathy of the people and of the government of the United States whose hearts go out to their British kinsmen in this, their National bereavement. To this I add the expression to your majesty and to the new King of my own personal sympathy and of my appreciation of those high qualities which made the life of the late King so potent an influence toward peace and justice among the nations."

The President also sent his military aid, Captain Archibald Butt, to the British embassy to express his condolence on the death of the King to Ambassador Bryce. Ambassador Bryce received an official announcement of the death of the King from the British foreign office. The ambassador appeared deeply affected and declared he would make no statement until tomorrow. Messages of condolence were received at the embassy from members of the cabine; and diplomatic corps.

Cardinal Gibbons' Opinion.

Baltimore, May 6.—When shown the dispatches from London, Cardinal Gibbons said: "The death of King Edward is the greatest calamity that could befall England and her possessions. The news will be received with deep regret by the whole civilized world, for he was a man of peace and of eminent tact."

Asheville, N. C., May 6.—When the news of the death of King Edward was broken to Dr. John S. Simon, England's only delegate to the Methodist General Conference now in session in this city tonight, the aged minister was visibly affected.

"It cannot be true," he exclaimed, as he tugged nervously at his white beard. "No, no, it cannot be true." Assured that the news could not be doubted, his eyes filled with tears as he paced nervously up and down the room. Then in a broken voice he said: "It is a very, very great loss; not only to us, his subjects, but to the whole world. He was a great ruler, a great man, and a good king. God rest his soul."

AT DANVILLE, ILL.

Troops are Under Strict Orders to Prevent Riotous Conduct.

Danville, Ill., May 6.—In spite of the fact that there are two companies of militia and a number of deputies under Sheriff Helmick on the scene, grave fears are entertained as to the outcome of the day in Westville, five miles from here, where several foreign miners have been troublesome for the last three days.

The chief ground for these fears is the fact that the saloons, which have been closed for two years, will reopen today. Westville went "wet" at the last election and this is the date set for resumption of the sale of liquor.

The two companies of militia, the Danville company under Capt. Swaim, and the Champaign company under Capt. Smith, numbering about seventy-five men in all, were summoned from the local armory at 1 o'clock this morning by the sheriff and were taken in two special trolley cars to Westville. Most of the men are stationed at No. 2 shaft, one mile from town. There was no demonstration on the arrival of the troops, and at an early hour in the forenoon everything was fairly quiet.

The miners, however, declared that some time during the day they would march in a body to Catlin, about five miles from Westville. Should this demonstration be peaceable no attempt will be made to interfer with them, but riotousness will be checked. Information of trouble in Indiana came by telephone this morning from Clinton, Ind., where at an early hour 200 miners marched on the Crown Hill and Buck Eye mines and threatened forty pump and repair men. Assistance was asked of the chief of police of Clinton, who sent men to the mines.

THE SWOPE CASE.

Mrs. Logan Swope Hopes for Preservation of Expert Evidence.

Kansas City, Mo., May 6.—Radical changes have been made in the State's plan for presenting rebuttal evidence in the Hyde poisoning case since the defense began its vigorous attack on expert testimony yesterday.

Instead of the prosecution's three scientists—Dr. W. S. Haines, Dr. Ludwig Hektoen and Dr. Victor C. Vaughn—returning home early today as they had planned, they remained here under the direction of the State. It is intimated all of the scientists may be recalled for rebuttal testimony.

Dr. Hyde's intention is, it is said, to center his fight for liberty on breaking down the evidence given by the prosecution's experts.

Although each of the scientists who has given evidence for the State is retained here at a cost of $200 a day to Mrs. Swope, she is determined that no cost shall prevent her from keeping their testimony as far intact as possible.

Toledo, O., May 6.—Rev. Patrick O'Brien, of this city, last night announced on the authority of Archbishop Falconia, of Washington, that the diocese of Cleveland has been divided and that the diocese of Toledo is a reality. The division of the diocese has long been under consideration. The new diocese which will extend from a point about half way from Cleveland to the Indiana line and contains 100,000 Catholics.

PRAISES PRIMARY LAW.

Defended Election of His Democratic Colleague in Oregon.

Washington, May 5.—Declaring that this State or Oregon has evolved "the best form of popular government that exists in the world today," Senator Jonathan Bourne, Jr., Republican, today defended the election by the Oregon State Legislature of his Democratic colleague, Senator Chamberlain. He characterized it as "the highest kind of evidence of the efficacy of the law."

After outlining the contest, Mr. Bourne said: "At the general election in June, Senator Chamberlain defeated Mr. Cake, notwithstanding the State was overwhelmingly Republican, thereby developing from the Democratic candidate into the people's choice for United States Senator. The normal Republican majority in Oregon, I think, is from 15,000 to 20,000.

"With full recognition of Mr. Chamberlain's ability and fitness for the office, the fact that for nearly six years he made the best Governor Oregon ever had, and considering that undoubtedly he is the most popular man in our State, I deem it but just to the law and a proper answer to the criticism of enemies of the law, that it destroys party lines and integrity, to state that, in my opinion, Senator Chamberlain received the votes of several thousand Republican enemies of the law who believed that in selecting Gov. Chamberlain, a Democrat, they would prevent a Republican Legislature from ratifying the people's selection, obeying the people's instructions and electing as United States Senator the individual, regardless of party, that the people might select for that office.

"Thus they hoped to make the primary law and statement No. 1 odious, and sought to create what they thought would be an impossible condition by forcing upon a Republican Legislature for confirmation the popularly designated Democratic candidate for United States Senator.

"They failed to realize that better than party, the infinitely greater than any individual, the people's choice becomes a representative of the people."
